EAST JORDAN, MICHIGAN

MISS EAST JORDAN 1994 Julie Mickey shares her special moment with Miss East Jordan 1993, her sister Amy.

Crown stays in the family

East Jordan residents may do a double take when they see newly crowned Miss East Jordan Julie Mickey - she looks just like Miss East Jordan 1993.

That's because she is the twin sister of the former queen, Amy Mickey. For Amy, crowning her own sister at the April 23 pageant made the night extra special.

Daughters of Gene and Nancy Mickey, the two girls have been very involved in musical activities in East Jordan, playing lead roles in the high school musicals for several years.

Julie, the 1994 Miss East Jordan is president of her senior class and a stand-out athlete, named All Conference in volleyball this year.

She also plays basketball and softball and a variety of musical instruments.

As Miss East Jordan, Julie will receive a $1,000 scholarship and many gifts and free services from area merchants. She will represent East Jordan at parades and festivals at home as well as regionally.

Julie won the casual dress segment of the contest, receiving a Walkman radio and cassette player. Her popularity with the other contestants also earned her the Miss Congeniality award, and an AM/FM radio.

First runner-up was Rebecca Vonesh, a senior at East Jordan High School and It's official!

We are proud and excited to announce that the East Jordan Journal has been recognized as the official newspaper for City of East Jordan public notifications.

The action was taken by the Ways and Means Committee of the City Council at a meeting March 3, with public notices beginning April 1.

We will continue to help you keep track of important people, activities and events in the East Jordan area, as we have since our "birth" 17 months ago. With your help and support, we hope to continue improving as East Jordan's only hometown newspaper!

Council 'thinks creatively'

BY DEB SAYGERS HOBBS
Torch/Journal Editor

Facing a bleak fiscal year, East Jordan City Council turned to creative problem-solving in dealing with several issues at the April 19 meeting.

Approached for the second time by Olson Street resident Michana Gee about a hazardous culvert, council struggled with finding funds for reducing the danger.

The safety hazard is a result of a cement-reinforced bank off the road over Brown Creek. The steep drop off the unprotected road is what concerns Gee and several other parents in the area.

City Superintendent Bob Johnson said the cost of labor and materials to protect both sides of the road could run as high as $8,000.

Council member Greg Chappuies suggested using any money left after bids on street projects already appropriated in the budget. He noted some guard rail donated by MDOT is in storage at the city waste transfer station and could be used for the project to cut costs.

"If we can't do it this year, we should definitely include the project in next year's budget," said Chappuies.

Mayor Russ Peck said the project couldn't wait.

"It's a matter of public safety," said Peck.

Chappuies pointed out that the sidewalk and street repairs budgeted were also a matter of public safety.

Continued brainstorming led to the idea of making it a volunteer project. Gee reported that several fathers of the 12 children in the neighborhood are willing to help.

Several council members and the mayor also volunteered, setting the date for Sat., June 4.

Meanwhile, a council committee is working on an ordinance to require developers to provide complete and safe roadways and other infrastructures in new developments.

Up-coming Freedom Fest

Council was able to honor a number of requests made by organizers of the annual July 4 Freedom Festival, including finding space for "Laura the Baby Elephant" and closing several streets for parades and activities.

But when the discussion turned to a request for community monies for banners, a dilemma became apparent.

Christmas Decoration Committee representative Debbie Chappuies said her committee had hoped to be first in consideration for the $2,000 available in the community promotion fund.

Since both groups wanted to purchase banners with the money, council agreed to use the promotional funds to install as many brackets as possible on the 29 light poles suggested by Chappuies' committee.

The city will install the brackets. Money left over will be considered for generic banners at a later date, with the newly formed DDA having jurisdiction over the selections.

Council terms expiring

Three two-year council terms, along with the annual mayor's term will expire Dec. 31, 1994. A 1st Ward seat

Ginny Miller is on the move

BY DEB SAYGERS HOBBS
Torch/Journal Editor

October 8, 1993, on a rainy US-31 between Eastport and Atwood, Ginny Miller's life changed.

That evening, she and her three friends were on their way to a football game in Elk Rapids. A car coming toward them lost control, slammed their small car into a spin, and slammed them again before coming to a rest.

The girls in the front seat, driver Jodi Ager and Tara LaPointe, both with broken bones and bruises, were treated and released from the hospital.

But the girls in the back seat, Ginny and Kate Schoensee, both sustained very serious injuries.

Ironically, seatbelts caused the injuries. The force of the collision caused the lap belts to literally cut into both girls.

At the same time, the belts probably saved their lives.

"If Jodi hadn't insisted that they all wear belts," said Ginny's mom Kathy, "I don't think any of them would be alive."

Torch Lake Township Fire Chief Stan Dawson, who responded to the scene, agrees.

"That little girl (Jodi) saved her friends' lives by making them wear seatbelts," he said, soon after the accident. Dawson said when he first arrived at the accident, he had a terrible feeling there would be fatalities.

"They are very lucky girls," said Dawson.

The injuries Ginny sustained that night were to her spine and abdomen. She was flown to the University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor where they set about putting her back together.

A long three months later, after several surgeries and a lot of hard work, Ginny was moved to Munson Hospital in Traverse City and was finally able to come home for good at the end of January.

Ginny is now back at school full-time, and after taking a break from physical therapy for a while to catch up on school work, will start back May 1.

"She has come a long, long way," said Kathy, "And she's not going to stop working. She's got a mean mother!"

Now confined to a wheelchair, Ginny is determined to continue with her pre-accident activities as much as possible. That includes being outdoors and going for long walks. But living on Rushton Road, she discovered that riding along on the side of a curved, hilly road that many people drive high-speed on could be fraught with danger.

The road shoulders are small and sandy, difficult for Ginny to maneuver, even with the help of her usual walking companion, brother Tony, 12. So she needs to stay on the pavement, but, as Kathy said, "cars fly by at about 70 to 80 mph."

The Millers contacted the township, and for once government bureaucracy was expedited, with the help of Central Lake Township Supervisor Paul Vernon. Warning signs have been placed in both directions near the Miller home on Rushton.

Vernon said the Antrim County Sheriff Department is planning "selective enforcement" of the 55 mph speed limit through the area. The township is also petitioning to lower the speed limit, especially through the residential area where Ginny lives.

While Kathy, her husband Randy and their children (which also includes son Jason) want people to know that seatbelts saved Ginny's life, they also say a shoulder strap would have saved Ginny from such severe injuries.

"Car-makers can install them in the back seats and it's very cheap, too," said Kathy. She said although they are now in the newest vehicles, people should demand them in their older cars, too.

"There should be a recall of all cars without them," she said.

Ginny thinks the new signs are great and hopes they will help the situation. She has one objection, though.

"The little guy on the sign has no hair," she said with a grin, flipping her own dark, shoulder-length tresses to emphasize the point.

Jordan Valley Library appeals for millage

MAY 9 WILL be an important day for readers as well as for property owners in the East Jordan area. This is the date the Jordan Valley District Library has set aside for a special library election. The library is seeking 1-mill. This is not additional millage. It is the same amount that was approved by the voters in 1986. The library lost its 1-mill when school funding was cut by the state last year. It did not expire. The library's 1-mill was collected by the East Jordan Public Schools, for the library.

A mill represents $1 for every $1,000 in assessed property value, which by law is supposed to equal half a property's market value. For residents with homes valued at $40,000, (state equalized value $20,000) taxes would be $20 per year, which is less than what a new hardcover book would cost. If the voters do approve the mill, the library will then receive its tax money directly from the six municipalities that are located in the district: Eveline, South Arm, Wilson, Jordan Township, Echo, and City of East Jordan.

If the millage passes, patrons will still be able to benefit from free and convenient access to all of the resources currently available.

Over 30,000 books, 130 magazines, bestsellers, newspapers, foreign language tapes, Spanish audio books, reference, books on tape, videos, music cassettes, magazines on fiche, phone directories, college bulletins, large print books, local history, genealogy, tax forms, photocopying, stamps, fax, typewriter usage, cassette players, community room usage, enterprise learning lab, green bus service to library for Grandvue patrons, children's programs, summer reading program, and tours.

The library will not receive any tax money until winter taxes are paid in 1995 if the millage passes. The library will have to operate on the existing fund balance until that time.

A "Love Your Library" campaign committee has been formed by Patricia Hodge and Fran Pletz. Committee members will spread their message with bookmarks (donated by Seeley Printing), campaigning, and community meetings.

The ballot will read: Shall taxes be assessed against taxable property in the Jordan Valley District Library District, County of Charlevoix, Michigan, in an amount not to exceed One Dollar ($1.00) per one thousand Dollars (1,000) (1 mill) of the State Equalized Valuation on all taxable property in the Jordan Valley Library District, in order to provide library funds for the Jordan Valley District Library? The polls will be open at the civic center from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Absentee ballots will be available by applying to: Ruby Dipzinski, P.O. Box 638, East Jordan, MI 49727. Request for application must be a signed letter specifying May 9th and Special election.

No recall if supervisor steps down

I AGREE WITH the title of "Resident is against unnecessary recall petition" that headed the letter by Harland D. Speer. I feel that no recall effort would have to be made if Supervisor Vernon would willingly step down from office as he said he would if a recall came about. The time has come, Supervisor Vernon. The recall is on and it is now the time to keep your promise and step down and SAVE the taxpayers the expense of a recall.

A public letter to Clayton Shepard

YOUR LETTER THAT appeared in the April 20 issue of The Torch stated, "I am deeply saddened to make these statements and bring these facts to the public."

I was deeply saddened to read the letter because it didn't give all the facts and most of those that it did give were inaccurate.

A few of the things you failed to mention are:

1.) You were a "bookkeeper" who volunteered to serve on the Budget Review Committee. Bookkeeper is enclosed in quotes because you repeatedly told me you were not an accountant but only a bookkeeper.

2.) You told me you were inexperienced with computers, which compounded the problem of reconstructing the computer records.

3.) The experience of your co-worker on the two-member sub-committee is what made the reconstruction in 72 hours possible and your opinion that you as a member of the "sub-budget committee" could have saved money by doing the rest of the reconstruction work is certainly not an accurate opinion.

4.) The sub-committee adjusted computer records for the period of April 1, 1992, through Nov. 30, 1992. Computer records were non-existent after clerk Lucas discontinued using the computer on Dec. 1, 1992, thus reconstruction of records from that time on required the expertise of an auditor, or at least an accountant, not a bookkeeper.

Now for a few of the inaccuracies

1.) The memo you referred to had been distributed to those to whom it was addressed, the township board, and that included one member of the planning commission. It announced what I planned to present at the public hearing which was to recommend changes to the original anti-blight ordinance, the only official anti-blight ordinance existing at that time and copies of that official ordinance had been picked up at the township offices by interested individuals. My presentation to the planning commission was certainly consistent with the purpose of the public hearing, which was to give the public the opportunity to comment and recommend changes.

2.) Your letter infers that the supervisor makes decisions by saying, "Mr. Vernon was not prudent in letting the auditors balance the books the last few months," when the township board, by unanimous vote, made that decision.

3.) It did not cost $10,000 to balance the books. The invoice from the auditor included costs for a full fiscal year audit of the library, fire district and all township operating funds.

It is unfortunate that your lack of understanding of the truth is leading you down the path that caused you to not give all the facts when you told your story about the "sub-budget committee."

✓ *Mark yourCALENDAR*Fashion show planned for May

For those wondering what's new in fashion this year, the Central Lake Lionesses are sponsoring a "Spring Through Summer Fashion Show and Dinner" on Thurs., May 5, 6:30 p.m. at the Central Lake High School cafeteria.

The fashions will be presented by Ports of Call of Bellaire and the E.J. Shop of East Jordan. Tickets are now on sale at $6.50 for adults and $3 for children under 12.

Co-chairpersons for the fashion show are Lionesses Barb Smith and Karen Scadin. They and other Lionesses have been busy preparing for this coming event. Recently, two workshops were organized to make the table prizes which are pincushions in the form of old-fashioned ladies. Lionesses who participated were Phyllis Armould, Marge Gruenberg, Mae Mohr, Bev Asplenleiter, Pat Budzynski, Jeanette Carleton, Chris Bachmann, Lodema Springstead, Kay Ryan, Dee Kulhawik and Malinda Lowrance.

Hospice training offered

Antrim County residents willing to volunteer with North Country Hospice may join the Charlevoix County Hospice Volunteer Training Program starting on Thurs., May 12. The training sessions will run for five weeks, meeting on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 7-9 p.m.

The first session will be a hospice orientation and the role of the volunteer. Each class will deal with a different aspect of training: grief and bereavement, death and dying, communication skills, spiritual care of the family, understanding the family, pain management, care of the patient's mouth, legal aspects, nutrition, and basic patient care.

Volunteers must be at least 18 years old. Call the hospice office, 536-2842, to become a valuable trained hospice volunteer.

Preschool screening set

A Developmental Screening Clinic for all Central Lake and Ellsworth children entering kindergarten in the fall of 1995 is set for May 11. Sponsored by the Charlevoix-Emmet Intermediate School District, the clinic will be at Grace Community Church, Central Lake.

This is a free service with appointments made on a first come, first served basis. Contact Pat Gauthier, 547-9947, at the Charlevoix-Emmet ISD for an appointment or for further information. The child's birthdate must be between Dec. 1, 1989 and Dec. 1, 1990.

Pottery show at JRAC

An exhibition by local potters David and June Otis continues at the Jordan River Arts Council on Main Street in East Jordan until Fri., April 29.

Works by Petoskey artist Ellie Nicol are also on display. Some items are offered for sale.

The arts center is open daily from 12-4 p.m.

Historical Society to meet

The Central Lake Area Historical Society will have its first meeting of 1994 on May 2 in the Government Building at 7 p.m. Anyone interested in the preservation of local history is welcome to join the members to hear of the recent projects undertaken.

Grass River begins spring programs

Grass River Natural Area will present the first of several spring offerings with a nature hike Sat., May 7.

The hike, entitled Silver Spring in honor of the 25th anniversary of GRNA, will begin at 10 a.m. Led by naturalist Doug Burns, hikers will welcome the new season on Grass River's many nature trails. There is no charge for participation, however reservations are required and can be made by calling 533-8314.

SCL-SML Preserve Dedication: Current pride, far-reaching impact

The weather cooperated, descendants of an important local family traveled hundreds of miles to participate, and a splendid lunch topped a day of positive feelings during the April 23 dedication of the Falle Hansen-Christine Sandberg Skow Family Preserve Dedication.

TAKING ADVANTAGE of an opportunity to share thoughts on the importance of environmental responsibility is Grand Traverse Regional Land Conservancy Executive Director Glen Chown (with book). Chown is surrounded by participants in the event, which included descendants of Ellsworth's historic Skow family and numerous SCL-SML supporters. (An anonymous donor of $30,000 that helped make the purchase possible asked that the Skows' many contributions to the area be recognized as the inspiration for the gift.)

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT was evident indoors as well as out, with a brown paper illustrated "quilt" patched together by local school children highlighting some of the Ellsworth area's rich history. The display was among several at the village community center, where walkers gathered for lunch. Another favorite: a collection of vintage photographs and other period items assembled by the Banks Township Historical Society.

A PHOTOGRAPH CAN hardly do justice to the diversity and beauty of the property that has now been preserved for the pleasure and education of generations to come. While this shot shows a small portion of the most recent acquisition, interested parties can view what is perhaps the most scenic stretch by taking advantage of a brand new option. Boat tours of the SCL-SML Natural area can be arranged (for a donation) by calling Ron Tschudy at 544-6167 or JoAnne Beemon at 547-4820.

WIELDING A MEAN shovel, Pepper Bromelmeler of the Antrim Soil & Water Conservation District helped eager youngsters plant 50 native tree seedlings on the new preserve property.

LEADING LOCAL CHILDREN in song is project activist JoAnne Beemon. Her hard work has been instrumental in the continued growth of the SCL-SML Natural Area. Today, the wild natural area has grown to 84 acres. A land acquisition fund is growing to fund possible future purchases.

THE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE

Breathing the Holy Spirit

"Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you.' And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit'."

— John 20: 21-22

When Jesus appeared before His disciples after His resurrection, He brought them the message of love and peace. More importantly, He imbued them with the Holy Spirit, literally the presence of God in the spiritual existence of man. The disciples were to become the founders of Christ's church, and as such, were to preach the forgiveness of sin. They, through receiving the Holy Spirit from Jesus, were to imbue that church with that spirit and the church in turn would pass on the Holy Spirit to true believers. We all share that Holy Spirit, for it means "God-with-man." And what is man without God?

About those announcements ...

COLUMN

by Mary Frey

It happened again last Friday.
But if I have my way – and your cooperation – it won't happen again.

What's that?

I'm glad you asked.

"That" is last-minute material for the following week's paper.

Not stop-the-presses, late-breaking news, but the coming events and announcements that we routinely place free-of-charge for the convenience of our readers.

Important stuff, to be sure. But typically stuff that is known about long before it finally comes our way.

Last Friday was a perfect example. Within a few minutes of the final deadline, a flood of press releases, photographs and community interest items all but drowned us (or, more accurately, me – the only person left in the editorial department at that hour).

And to complicate matters, one piece contained a clearly erroneous date for an upcoming event that simply had to be corrected before it could go in the paper – if I could get the guy on the phone.

An all-too-familiar scramble ensued.

Oh, I know – we don't guarantee placement of such unpaid items in any event. But we don't like to disappoint readers, either – and it is what they expect.

Besides, every one of those nice folks who brought in their stuff before Friday at 5 p.m. was in complete compliance with our deadline.

And they probably didn't mean to wait 'til the last moment to get their important information to us.

But human nature being what it is, that's just what happened.

In fact, that's just what happens every week.

But finally last Friday night, as I was (once again) driving home an hour later than I'd intended, I had a blinding flash of insight.

Our readers are the best folks in the world, and they deserve to be treated that way. But they didn't ask us to establish unreasonable deadlines that could make serving them a headache – we did that to ourselves.

And we can undo it.

And that, my friends, is what this column is all about.

So let it be known that from May 1 forth, the deadline for all coming events and announcements (births, engagements, anniversaries, etc.) in all our publications will be Wednesday at 5 p.m. for the following week's paper.

This small change will make it easier for us to accommodate you, and to catch and correct the errors that often occur in reader submissions.

■ Will there be any exceptions?

You bet! A busy club publicist whose child was rushed to the hospital Wednesday morning would certainly deserve a break. So would the organizers of a spur-of-the-moment benefit for a suddenly homeless family.

But by and large, those who expect the newspaper to give them a little free publicity should have no trouble submitting their material to us in a timely manner.

■ Will there be any alternatives for those who simply don't get around to dropping off their stuff off by the new deadline?

Sure! You can pay for a space on our economical classified pages, and get your message in any or all of our five newspapers – clear up to Monday at 5 p.m.

So that's the plan: Bring us your non-profit coming events, club meetings, engagements, weddings, etc. by Wednesday at 5 p.m.

for no charge; after that, make a small payment for publication. Either way, the choice is yours.

My family – and the families of all Up North Publications staffers – thank you for your cooperation.

So let it be known that from May 1 forth, the deadline for all coming events and announcements (births, engagements, anniversaries, etc.) in all our publications will be Wednesday at 5 p.m. for the following week's paper.

The Ellsworth Tradesman

April 22, 1926

■ The Ellsworth Corner Garage sold five cars the past week to the following people:

A Touring to Gale Allen, Ironton. A Couple to B.E. Mellencamp, County Agent of Charlevoix County. A Ton Truck to Banks Township Marketing Association and a Sedan to Henry VanderArk, both of Ellsworth. And to Earl Richards of Bellaire, a Roadster.

■ County Agent B.C. Mellencamp of Boyne City was a caller in Ellsworth last Monday and the radiant smile is explained when we hear of the little son, who arrived at their home April 9.

■ Lewis Essenberg, Atwood, intends to work for Mr. Wickersham near Charlevoix this coming summer.

■ Preparations are being made to build a tennis court on the north side of the Ellsworth school grounds.

■ The Ellsworth Modern History class is studying the World War. It proves to be a very interesting subject.

■ William Drenth, Fairview, has been laid up for a few days, on account of a sore knee, caused by a fall in the barn last Tuesday.

■ Farmers around Fairview has sold their potatoes, getting the top market price of $3 a bushel.

■ L.H. Brooks, Antrim City, is doing some carpenter work for C.L. Stott. He is working there in the morning and gathers the milk from his maple trees afternoons.

■ Miss Harriet Carpenter, Bentley Hill, had her tonsils removed at East Jordan, she was able to return to her home the last of the week.

The Central Lake Torch

April 20, 1950

■ Four members of the Central Lake High Track Team went to Ann Arbor, with their coach Scott Bothwell last Friday to compete in the River Rouge Track meet Saturday.

The team failed to win points but they made a good showing, according to Bothwell.

■ The Central Lake Girls basketball team was treated to a movie at the Bellaire Theater last Thursday evening by their coach, Miss Rosemary Taft.

Following the show, Miss Taft took the girls to The Grill, where they found a table set for them with a beautiful, three-layer cake in the center.

■ Harrison Loper Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Loper Sr. of Central Lake, and Miss Zelda Grannis, daughter of Lewis Grannis of Bellaire, were united in marriage April 15 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harris Loper Sr. Rev. Counter-man performed the ceremony.

■ Mr. and Mrs. C.M. Patsch arrived from Florida last week to find a storm on in northern Michigan. A short stop at the chilly cottage at Torch Lake Shores, Eastport, a brief call for their mail, and they spent the night in Central Lake. Next morning, they headed for Detroit. Suppose we'll see them again?

■ Small Burnice Bennett, Eastport, less than 3 years of age, sang for us this Monday morning. Her songs were "In the Garden," and "The Church In The Wildwood." At the store, small Dickie King, still younger, was singing "Jingle Bells."

■ Mr. Staudenmeyer, Miles District, had the misfortune to lose a horse last week.

■ Mr. and Mrs. August Bulman, Miles District, went smelting Sunday night and reported a fine catch of about 200 smelt.

■ Conrad Klooster and his head mechanic Mike Fielstra of Atwood spent the past week visiting John Deere plants in Moline, Ill., Waterloo and DeBake, Iowa.

This tour was sponsored by the John Deere manufacturers to acquaint their dealers with the manufacturing process of their tractors and farm implements.

■ Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. VanderArk, Ellsworth, who have been in the grocery business here since 1924, will open a dry goods and notions store with a formal grand opening scheduled for April 22.

Central Lake 4-H News

Our 1994 Antrim County 4-H Spring Achievement Fair, was held April 15-16 at the Elk Rapids High School gym.

The 4-H Twisters represented Central Lake by entering their craft and ceramic projects, sewing and modeling.

In modeling, the "Buymanship Division" were Jenny Pardee, Kathryn Barnard, Nicole Moffat, and Ben Comment. They all received a blue ribbon for their first year.

In sewing, Molly Hanlon made a dress for spring and summer and received a blue ribbon.

In crafts, we had several winners who took first place blue ribbons. They are: Cassie Pardee, Melissa Rice, Nicole Moffat, Jenny Pardee, Justin Pardee, Kathryn Barnard, Molly Hanlon, and Maggie Hanlon.

Some members participated in Dick and Marjorie Spence's ceramic classes for several weeks. The Spences donated paints, brushes and most important, their

Power out for Top O' Michigan customers

An estimated 6,230 Top O' Michigan customers were without electricity for up to two hours April 15 when a tree cut by a man fell into a 69,000 volt transmission line knocking out power to five Top O' Michigan substations.

Power went off around 8:40 a.m. and was fully restored at 10:40 a.m.

The outage affected a large area which included parts of Charlevoix and Antrim counties.

Jo's News

by Jo Somerville 544-6347

☛ Mike Giddings of New Jersey is here spending the week with his mother Marianne Giddings and helping with spring chores.

☛ Bart and Army Patton of K.I. Sawyer Air Force Base were weekend guests of their parents Maureen and Dave Patton. They visited brothers Brent and Brian and families and other school friends. Their grandmother Jo Somerville enjoyed Sunday dinner with the group.

☛ Lodema Springstead was a guest Sunday at daughter Lisa and Jerry Kent on East Torch Lake Drive, to honor their son Lloyd on his ninth birthday. His grandfather Gerald Kent from East Jordan and sisters Laura and Lesa were present, also Laurie and Heather Springstead, to make it a fun day.

☛ Richard and Virginia Wilson was in Grayling on Wednesday to attend a C.C.C. camp meeting and visit old friends.

☛ We are sorry to report Vi Brewington had misfortune to fall Wednesday at home and broke her hip. She is a patient in Charlevoix Hospital where she had surgery on Friday.

☛ Addy McKay Hanson left on Thursday morning for home in Seattle, Wash. after spending two weeks here visiting her mother Mary and brothers George, Bill and families. She came to be present for memorial services for her father

Allan McKay.

☛ Bill and Lorraine Lavigne of Owosso, were overnight guests Sunday of her parents Virginia and Dick Wilson. They went to the hospital on Monday and with her mother, who had eye surgery.

☛ Lloyd and Ella Burns left Friday morning for Grand Rapids to visit their daughter Penny Burns. Lloyd will participate in the Fiddlers Jamboree there on Saturday.

☛ Ruth and Darnell Stephens and Lodema Springstead were in Traverse City Friday and enjoyed lunch with old neighbor Fern Harris, who is at her sons home there, caring for grandchildren.

☛ Many friends will remember Hermia M. Rothgeb, a former resident on East Intermediate Lake Drive for years. She was in Denver with her son Tom, who called her friend Lucille Davis. Graveside Eastern Star memorial services will be held at Southern Cemetery, May 29 at 2 p.m.

☛ Birthday dinner for senior citizens was held Thursday at the Governmental Center. Around 22 friends were present to enjoy delicious beef, gravy and potatoes with birthday cupcakes and ice cream. Cards were given to ones with birthdays with $2 from the Ladies Auxilliary and gifts from the Senior Club. After prayer, we sang Happy Birthday to the birthday celebrants. Some were absent, so they missed a good party.

Students may now apply for MADD scholarship

Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD), Michigan is accepting applications for its annual student scholarship now through May 15. Anyone with an active interest in the fight to end drunk driving may apply.

MADD created the scholarship in response to the economic devastation caused by alcohol-involved traffic crashes. In this nation, someone dies in an alcohol-involved traffic crash every 30 minutes, and an injury occurs every 26 seconds; about 47,000 people a year will suffer permanent work-related disabilities. Even with improvements in the alcohol-involved crash fatality rate over the past decade, alcohol-impaired driving remains a major menace on our highways and the single greatest factor in traffic crashes.

The scholarships are to assist students in their education toward their chosen career at a Michigan community college, trade school, four-year college or university of the recipient's choice. The scholarship will be awarded based on a combination of merit and financial need. Amounts vary between $500 and $1,000 for the 1994-95 academic year. Recipients must be entering, attending or returning to college or a trade school, a Michigan resident and a high school graduate.

To obtain a scholarship application, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to MADD, Michigan, 910 Eastlawn, Midland, MI, 48642, by May 6. The completed, returned application must be postmarked no later than May 15.

Banks Township meets on opinion survey

Banks Township residents agree that it is important to preserve its rural character and scenic value. There is also strong support to protect lakes, streams and water quality and other natural resources such as forest land and farm land.

These were some of the findings of a public opinion survey distributed to nearly 1200 township residents last fall. Over 400 surveys were returned which were more than enough to provide township officials with valid information about citizens views on a variety of subjects.

A public meeting will be held on Fri., May 6, at 7:30 p.m. at the Ellsworth Community Hall to present the survey results and discuss them with interested citizens.

"Banks Township has been zoned for a number of years and the township board and planning commission value the opinion of township citizens" noted Dan Wieland, township supervisor. The Public Opinion Survey was held jointly with Marion and Norwood townships with assistance from Michigan State University Extension.

The Banks Township Planning Commission is beginning the process of developing a master plan, and the survey seemed like a good way to begin.

"It is important to find out what people are thinking in this process, and we want to present our findings to the community on May 6," said Bud Weede, planning commission chairman.

Residents are encouraged to come to the meeting to interact with township officials regarding the opinion survey results. Ample opportunity will be set aside for a question-answer session.

Thanks to Dr. Mark Zook of Baldwin, we now know that "Central Lake is the most beautiful spot in the world." He wrote us a note telling about an unidentified patient who recently returned from a trip to Australia. Even after seeing that beautiful country, she was still sold on Central Lake. Dr. Zook agreed and so do we!

A bit of East Jordan history: the annual Kentucky Derby run at the East Jordan Rotary Father and Son Banquet is a 45-50 year old tradition (no one knows the exact number), still going strong.

According to East Jordan Iron Works Vice President Tad Malpass, the toy horses used for the races were built by his grandfather at the Iron Works about the same time the races began and have most of the original parts.

It sure tells you something about the quality of workmanship when you see the abuse those poor cast iron horsies take at the Derby!

Animal observations: It seems that Omar, Jeff and Lynne Schauer's old horse, would rather be anywhere than his own pen. He has been seen sampling the greenery in every nearby field, including the Schauer's front lawn!

Maybe Omar has heard the old saw that the grass is always greener on the other side of the fence - and he intends to find out!

Is the legend true that the seagulls spend the winter underground? It certainly seems like they've just been released by all those tractors they follow.

Remember when . . .

. . . school kids had potato digging vacation instead of Spring break?

It was a chance to work in potato harvest and earn money for school clothes, if you weren't successful during the summer, at the same time helping farmers with their harvest.

It's sad to see the non-productive farms that were all thriving when I was a boy. Perhaps our higher standard of living has been at the expense of the farmer and our overall hurt. I say God bless the farmers.

Students help Grass River celebrate anniversary

Area school students have been invited to help celebrate the Grass River Natural Area's 25th anniversary by producing posters commemorating the preservation of the natural area.

Grass River is sponsoring the poster contest to reinforce the continuity of the project that was started when the parents of today's school children were children themselves, according to Mark Randolph, acting director for GRNA.

The contest gives students an opportunity to be a part of the Grass River project which was begun 25 years ago for the benefit of these very children. These student's grandparents and parents deserve the credit for helping to protect the 1,100 acre Natural Area from development.

Now another generation is benefitting from the foresight of those individuals. Participation in this contest allows these future stewards of the land a chance to be an important part of the celebration.

They are why Grass River was preserved in the first place, Randolph added.

The poster contest is open to all school age students in the area. Information has been sent to the schools. Winning students will receive a family pass to any Grass River events at any time of year.

Winning posters will be displayed at the 25th Anniversary Gala held at Shanty Creek Resort on July 6.

Noah's Walk for Arc

The Grand Traverse Area Association on Mental Retardation will be holding a walk-a-thon on May 7, beginning at 8 a.m. at the Civic Center. This barrier free, traffic free environment provides a safe atmosphere for participants, especially those with young children, wheelchairs and other limitations. It allows participants to set their own pace and determine their distance from one mile up to ten miles.

All funds raised from "Noah's Walk for the Arc" will remain in the Grand Traverse Area and support programs for people with mental retardation and developmental disabilities.

Participants will all qualify for the many prizes donated by local merchants. The grand prize is a fun filled golf getaway for two at Sugar Loaf Resort. Other prizes include hot air balloon rides, memberships at local health and fitness centers, golf for two and many other items. Challenge teams will also receive awards for the following categories: most money raised by a team, highest per walker pledge average, best team name and most collective miles walked by a team.

For more information or to register call The Arc at 941-0560.

Transportation contest open to young artists

The Michigan Department of Transportation (M•DOT) hopes to capture on paper young peoples' artistic impressions of the importance of transportation in the state. Michigan youths are encouraged to enter their original drawings or paintings in a Michigan Transportation Week art contest. The deadline for entries is May 2.

The theme of the contest is "Transportation - Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow" and covers all types of transportation. First place winners in each category will receive a $100 savings bond and all entries will be placed in the State Capitol rotunda in Lansing during Michigan Transportation Week, May 15-20. For further information or an entry form, contact Rick Hammond, M•DOT Bureau of Aeronautics, at 517-335-9783.

Team-building conference set

Mobilizing individuals and community groups interested in improving opportunities for all people in northern Michigan to achieve and maintain freedom from alcohol and other drug abuse will be the focus of the "Northern Michigan Team Building Conference" slated for Fri., May 13 in Gaylord at Hidden Valley Resort, from 9:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m.

It is sponsored by Northern Michigan Substance Abuse Services, Inc., the regional coordinating agency for substance abuse services serving 23 counties including Antrim.

The services' advisory council initiated the concept of the conference as a response to the need in northern Michigan for a strong coalition to provide input at the local, regional and state level on planning and policy decisions. The conference will provide information on how to address the issues of alcohol and other drug abuse in each community.

The conference is free and lunch is provided. No experience or expertise is required for participa-

Norman R. Hayes, Chief Judge of the 87th District Court, announced he will seek re-election.

"The citizens of Antrim, Kalkaska and Otsego counties deserve a qualified, experienced and hard-working judge," stated Judge Hayes. "Throughout my years on the bench, I believe I have proven myself to be a consistent decision-maker, imposing fair and equal justice and establishing a record of dedicated service to the entire 87th District."

In 1993, the caseload for the 87th District Court increased 31.7 percent with 21,422 new cases being filed. Judge Hayes said with the increased caseload it is imperative he be available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, to issue warrants, arraign individuals and to be responsive to the needs of those in the District.

Judge Hayes began serving the district in 1991. Since then, the District Court has been under budget every year. In three years, the court has returned more than $120,000 to the counties in unexpended funds.

"We are continually implementing cost cutting measures in our day-to-day operation of the court," explained Judge

Hayes. "I cannot, will not, nor have I favored one or two counties based on the location of where I live within the district," he said. "By law every case must be heard by the assigned judge regardless of whether it is filed in Bellaire, Kalkaska or Gaylord."

Hayes announces re-election bid

Hayes. "For fiscal year 1994 alone, we have saved Antrim County $10,000 by accepting bids on the indigent defense contract. By purchasing our own computer, we saved Kalkaska and Antrim counties $8,200 a year and provided more computer time for Otsego County which reduced its overall cost of conducting county business."

According to statistics compiled by the Secretary of State, Judge Hayes is one of the toughest sentencing judges in northern Michigan on drunk drivers. In addition, he firmly believes in providing victims of crime an opportunity to be heard in the court system.

"Victims are affected for the rest of their lives, and judges must give them an opportunity to express the pain and suffering inflicted upon them by the defendant," he said.

Judge Hayes also remains committed to serving the entire 87th District Court.

"I cannot, will not, nor have I favored one or two counties based on the location of where I live within the district," he said. "By law every case must be heard by the assigned judge regardless of whether it is filed in Bellaire, Kalkaska or Gaylord."

Norman Hayes

Judge Hayes cited the creation of the Community Mediation Service, multi-count ticket and truck driver training programs as examples of his commitment to the district.

Local teams run at Central Lake

BY S.F. PUCKETT
Sports Writer

The early season knot of local track teams meeting each other continued as Bellaire went to Central Lake.

The Eagle boys took first in Central Lake April 19 with 83 points, a close battle for second going to Forest Area with 49, Joberg third with 44 and host Central Lake fourth with 40.

Winners for Bellaire included Kevin Bratschi in the high jump at 5'10", John Ellison took the 100 hurdles in 19:01, and Jeremy VanSice had the 300 hurdles in 45.03. The Eagle relay team took the 4x400 in 4:00.00.

Lancer boys sweep, are swept

BY S.F. PUCKETT
Sports Writer

It was an all or nothing week for the Ellsworth baseball team, taking a pair from the Central Lake Trojans, then dropping two against the East Jordan Red Devils.

Ellsworth got winning pitching performances from Tim Koivisto and Lucky Lucas to knock down the Trojans by equal amounts, winning 9-1 and 9-1. Cliff Boatwright and Jeff Budzynski joined Cain Derenzy as part of the Trojan effort. Mike Strange and Mike Warner did the defensive duty for Ellsworth.

East Jordan had other ideas about Ellsworth Thursday, shutting off the Lancer offense enough to win 9-4 and 4-2. In game one, East Jordan came back from a deficit in the middle innings to win, saddling Koivisto with the loss. Lucas got tagged with the loss in game two despite a fine pitching performance and batting help from Pat Zeitler and Jeremy Peterson.

Central Lake won the 3200 (10:50.59), the 400 (54.87) and 1600 (4:50.20) all on one set of legs, those owned by Ryan Shay. Trojan Josh Beardon won the 800 in 2:27.75.

Bellaire also won the 4x200 in 1:43.91 and the 4x100 in 50.34.

Earning seconds for Bellaire were Johnathon Harris in the 400, 1600 and 3200, timed at 57.30, 5:21.27 and 11:28.41. Scott Hughey in the discus tossed 81'7"; Kevin Ordway in the 800 with 2:30.41 and John Ellison in 300 hurdles was 48.28.

Central Lake's only second came from Ryan Shay in the high jump, 5'8".

Joberg won the ladies portion with 103 points, Bellaire second with 57, Central Lake third with 54 and Forest Area fourth with 13.

Leading the Eagles with firsts were Aideen Carrick in the discus, 67'5 1/2", Jessica Poel in the 100 hurdles in 18.66, and Amy Czajkowski in the 300 hurdles with 53.31. Two Eagle relay teams won, the 4x200 in 2:00.67 and the 4x100 in 57.16.

Central Lake winners included Lynette Sommers in the shot put, 25'7", Andrea Majcher in the long jump, 13'4", Liz Bachmann in the high jump at 4'6", and Sarah Shay in the 1600, 6:11.97.

Eagle seconds were recorded by Heather Courtemanche in the shot put, 25'1.75", Maria Ivemark in the 300 hurdles, 1:01.75, and the 4x1600 relay team went 5:15.41.

Trojan seconds included Sarah Shay in the 800 (2:51.00) and the 3200 (13:36.50) and Bridgette McAvoy in the 1:13.47 400 dash.

Lancers tested by Trojans

BY S.F. PUCKETT
Sports Writer

Central Lake hosted the Lancers April 18 and tried valiantly to dislodge a victory from the Lancers. "We were a little tense and just couldn't get relaxed. Central Lake played good defense and the wind was keeping the ball held up," summarized coach Jack Danbert, whose Lancer ladies pierced the Trojan defense for a run in extra innings to win 4-3.

Jennifer VanderArk pitched a two-hitter, striking out 10 to edge out Julie Aenis of the Trojans, who allowed only four hits and out five in the duel.

Aenis and Amy Dawson had the Central Lake hits, while VanderArk had two hits and three RBIs, Angie Peterson two hits and three stolen bases, and Lisa Essenberg the final hit. Jennifer McPherson aided her batterymate with three stolen bases while Faith Drenth did a solid job patrolling centerfield and shagging Trojan flies.

Game two saw Ellsworth deflate the Trojan hopes with a 16-0 romp, VanderArk pitching a one-hitter with ten more strikeouts to best Aenis, who struck out six and allowed nine hits.

Heather Springstead had the lone Trojan hit, while Ellsworth got Robyn Brookins with two hits and a pair of RBIs, Lisa Essenberg with two hits, Angie Peterson hit and stole five bases, Jodee Alfred smashed a home run for two RBIs. Megan Boss commanded two hits, three stolen bases and two RBIs, while McPherson tripled in a run.

Thursday, Ellsworth started out right, topping East Jordan 10-2 as VanderArk continued on, allowing two hits with 13 strikeouts, while Parasohl for East Jordan allowed just eight hits.

Dawn Meads and Jennifer Burr had the hits for East Jordan, while Ellsworth picked up three hits by Lisa Essenberg, with three RBIs, VanderArk added two hits, two RBIs, Angie Peterson two hits and Robyn Brookins three RBIs and a double.

In game two East Jordan got a measure of revenge and won 15-5, VanderArk with 10 walks and 10 strikeouts, allowing 12 hits. Parashol got the win this time.

Megan Boss had two of the Lancer hits and an RBI. East Jordan plate wizards were Jennifer Burr with two smacks, with Woodard, Fleming and Meads adding significant hits.

Mancy sweeps Central Lake in baseball

BY S.F. PUCKETT
Sports Writer

The Mancelona Ironmen swept the visiting Trojans off the baseball diamond with 7-4 and 12-7 wins last week.

Brian Lanning struck out 12 Trojans to get the win, outdueling Chad Pletcher who struck out seven for Central Lake, plus hit 4 for 4.

Mancelona scored five times in the sixth to assume control of the game, thanks in part to the timely hitting of David Lanning, a solid four hits in four tries, Gary Straight with a double and single, and Jason Helwig with two hits. Central Lake got two hits apiece from Chris Eldrington and Tom Ernst.

In game two, David Lanning got the victory over Cliff Boatwright, 12-7, despite three-hit games by Jeff Budzynski and Chris Eldrington and two doubles by Boatwright himself. Mancelona used the offensive power of Tom Castle, who connected on a solo and a two-run homer, Brian and David Lanning each had two hits, and like Joe Churchill and Gary Straight, had a double.

Trojans girls win, boys take third

BY S.F. PUCKETT
Sports Writer

In a home track meet Thursday, the Central Lake girls won with 85 points to 67 for a hard-charging Pellston contingent. Gaylord St. Mary's was third with 23 and Forest Area fourth with five.

Liz Bachmann won the 100 hurdles, 300 hurdles, 200 dash and high jump while Shays took wins in three events, Sarah with the 1600 and 3200, Amie the long jump.

For the boys, Ryan Shay won four times to match Bachmann. Unfortunately, St. Mary's had the extra bodies to win the boys side with 99 points, Pellston with 57, Central Lake 51 and Forest Area 50.

Ryan won the 400, 800 and 1600 with a high jump win to boot. Beardon and Glynn added their efforts to the Trojan totals as well.

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Tips on how to select a builder

Now that you have decided you want to buy a new home, do you know how to find a builder who is committed to giving you the best value for your money? When selecting your builder, you'll want to choose him or her as carefully as you will choose the style of your home.

A good place to start your search is the real estate section of the newspaper. Look for the type of home you want and note who builds them. Make a list of the ones you like and visit the developments. Take a look around, and pick up the promotional material they will have available. Talk to a sales person about the builder's history, the company's mission statement and what its customer service response system is. Remember that most of the information you will pick up will be oriented toward selling the home and will be written by the builder or someone the company employed.

Ask the builder for the addresses of the homes they recently built, and take a drive around the neighborhood. Saturday and Sunday are good days for your tour since you are more likely to catch people at home doing yard work and chores. Introduce yourself and tell them that you are considering purchasing a home from the builder who built their home and that you are collecting random opinions of the builder's quality and customer service. Try to talk with at least three or four homeowners per neighborhood, and don't just rely on the views of one person.

Other reference sources include real estate agents and personal references. Please remember that real estate agents typically work for the seller of a property unless you retain them as buyer brokers.

In your search, be thorough, and don't be afraid to ask plenty of questions.

Make sure the builders you are considering are fully licensed by the state. Before making your final decision be sure you know the answers to these questions:

- Is the builder an established member of the community where you want to live?

- Does the builder offer a customer service program, and, if so, what does it cover?

- Can the builder give you references from satisfied customers?

Remember that when you are buying a new home, you are not just buying a structure, but a package of services, and the quality of those services will have an impact on your enjoyment of your home. Do your research thoroughly, and you should have no trouble finding a builder who meets your high standard of quality.

Reading program thanks its supporters

IN CELEBRATION OF the recent Reading Is Fun Week, April 17-23, the members of the East Jordan Schools Reading is Fundamental program would like to thank its supporters.

Since 1978, RIF has been giving students free books to promote the joy of reading. Three times per year, students in preschool-8th grade choose a book to keep.

This service would not be possible without the help of the parents and community.

Thanks to the East Jordan Bridge Club, East Jordan Lioness Club, East Jordan Rotary, PTO, and supporters of Dinner With Santa: Foxes, Rite Aid, Carey's Corner Market, Jordan Valley Pharmacy, EZMart, Glen's, Family Dollar, Boyne Automotive Service, Teddy Bear Day Care, Quality Cottage Service, Michigan Snowmobiler Magazine, Farm Bureau Insurance.

We would also like to express our gratitude to Gemini Lanes, sponsor of the recent Bowler's Charities Tournament and all the businesses that donated: CBNorth, John Kempton, DDS, Galmore's Unlimited Products, Lifestyles, Vincent's Yamaha, Busy Bridge, Route 66 Oil Exchange, Jordan Valley Greenhouse, Jordan Valley Pharmacy, Carey's Corner Market, Jordan Valley Animal Clinic, EJ Co-op, GHA Insurance, Jordan Valley Accounting, EJ Shop, Lumberjack's, Korthase Insurance, East Jordan Iron Works, Charlevoix Properties, Round Table Restaurant, Avon, Sherman's Appliances, Competitive Edge, True Value Hardware, Jordan Auto, Jordan Valley District Library, Glen's, Jordan Cleaning Center, FMB Northwestern, Darlene's, Trading Post Party Store, Fox's, AJ's Auto Parts and Vital Options.

Turkey hunters convene in East Jordan

BY KEITH MATHENY
Contributing Writer

Many Antrim County residents were in the crowd at the Turkey Hunters Workshop held at the East Jordan High School April 9. A large group gathered in the school's auditorium and cafeteria to learn more about turkeys and turkey hunting.

Members of the Traverse Bay Area Wild Turkey Federation attended the workshop. The organization covers seven counties in Northwest Lower Michigan, and many hunters from Antrim County represented the federation. The group raffled various donated sporting goods at the workshop, with the proceeds going to buy feed for wild turkeys.

Jeremy Guntzville, 14, of Elk Rapids said this was the second straight year he's attended the East Jordan workshop.

"You learn new turkey calls and different ways to hunt," he said. "There's always something new."

Herb and Florence Reiley of Bellaire said they've attended every northern Michigan workshop since they started in Charlevoix more than five years ago.

"We like the knowledge we gain about new regulations and new hunting ideas each year, but seeing old friends and fellowship with other hunters is the big thing for us," Herb said.

The couple, who often hunt and fish together, said they began hunting turkeys about seven years ago.

"We've hunted deer all of our lives," Florence said. "Hunting turkeys is much more challenging and much more fun."

One of the first plantings of wild turkeys in Antrim County was done on the Reileys' 1,100-acre property.

Michael Borkovich, Elk Rapids resident and Conservation Officer at the Gaylord District office of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, talked about turkey hunting laws at the workshop. Fellow conservation officer from the Gaylord District Tom Sweet addressed hunter safety issues. Other speakers included wildlife biologist Doug Reeves who discussed turkey behavior and breeding activity, and Jim Maturen of the National Turkey Federation who talked about the current status of the organization.

Borkovich said the wild turkey was almost nonexistent in Michigan by the late 1960s. Turkeys were reintroduced to the state by the DNR at around that time. The department used money from hunting license fees and purchased wild turkeys from southern states where they thrive. They then began planting flocks at key points in Michigan.

The DNR plants 12 to 30 turkeys about three times a year in Antrim County. The bird population is now strong in northern Michigan, with at least 3,000 breeding birds, according to Borkovich.

The officer said people like the Reileys have been instrumental in the wild turkey's comeback in the state.

"People who buy feed for the birds, who let us spread feed on their property - they've really made the difference," he said.

held by Guy Vallance, 2nd Ward seat by Greg Chappuis and a 3rd Ward seat held by Ruth Gee will be available.

To appear on the Aug. 2 primary ballot and the Nov. 8 general ballot, candidates must file nominating petitions with the City Clerk no later than 4 p.m. May 10, 1994.

Petitions are available Monday-Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the clerk's office in City Hall.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The sidewalk improvements budgeted at $47,170 and street improvements ($10,300) reported as dropped from the city budget in a Journal article April 13, were reinstated when the council made the decision to insert a 3-mill tax increase.
