

Weather

The first full week of summer saw normal temperatures, with daytime highs in the upper 70s to low 80s, and plenty of sunshine early in the week. An overcast Friday delivered some much-needed precipitation, with a slow and steady rainfall that continued throughout the night. Saturday cleared by midday, and by Sunday, the mercury was climbing back into the mid-eighties under a wind-swept sky. Mock orange and early peonies are just passing their peak; wild sweet peas are starting to bloom. LAST YEAR: The same time period saw the year's highest temperature-to-date: 90 degrees on June 24 — a mark surpassed this year in early June.

Bill Grauel to lead Freedom Festival parade

BY DEB S. HOBBS
Torch/Journal Editor

Saturday afternoon, as the parade winds its way through town, residents will have the opportunity to pay tribute to a man who many feel epitomizes the spirit of East Jordan.

Leading the parade will be long-time resident William Grauel, Sr., 72. Well-known in the community for both his business and philanthropic activities, Grauel will return to serve as grand marshal of the 1994 Jordan Valley Freedom Festival Grand Parade.

According to member Mary Jason, when the parade committee began their search for grand marshal, they wanted someone who would exemplify neighborliness, involvement, and volunteerism.

"Bill Grauel came to mind immediately," said Jason.

Born in Kitchener, Ontario, Grauel served in the Royal Canadian Air Force during World War II before coming to East Jordan in 1949. Married to Frances Mary Malpass, he began working at Northwestern State Bank as a teller/bookkeeper.

Becoming a United States citizen in the 1950s, he commented that though he will always love Canada,

William Grauel, Sr.

"The U.S. is the best country in the world!"

Grauel rapidly climbed the ranks at the bank (now FMB Northwestern), from assistant cashier in 1952 to vice president by 1963. He joined the bank board in 1974 and became president in 1976.

He retired from the presidency in 1987.

Grauel was active in many professional organizations, and served as director of Michigan Bankers Association. He attended University of Michigan, University of Wisconsin, and Rutgers University schools of banking.

Grauel also made his mark on the community, serving on the library board as treasurer for 26 years; the East Jordan branch of Charlevoix County Hospice; the Chamber of Commerce; and East Jordan Rotary. He served as director of many organizations including Community Chest, Charlevoix County Hospital, Scenic Trails Council of Boy Scouts, and United Fund of Michigan.

Grauel was also very active in the church, becoming an elder at First Presbyterian. He served as area vice president of Presbyterian Men, and was a delegate to the national Presbyterian conference.

He was instrumental in procuring the Boswell Field scoreboard. More recently, the Grauels dealt with family tragedy by serving the education of local students, establishing the very generous William H. Grauel, Jr. Memorial Scholarship in the aftermath of the death of son Billy. The scholarship will provide full four-year tuition at Michigan State University for one East Jordan High School senior annually.

The Grauels have four daughters and another son. Although they now spend most of the year in Florida, they maintain close friends and family connections in East Jordan and visit often.

New school building?

Facility review committee looking at question

BY DEB SAYGERS HOBBS
Torch/Journal Editor

Will the East Jordan School Board soon be asking the community for a new school building?

That is the question a facility review committee will determine in a series of meetings beginning in early July.

Though the committee will debate a subject that was addressed just two years ago, the limited options are more apparent. The previous attempt provided only the short-term solution of shifting and remodeling existing classrooms. Meanwhile overcrowding has increased and school population projection figures show the trend will continue.

Superintendent Chip Hansen said that the board wants the committee to look further into the future.

"The committee should provide rationale that says this is a good decision not just today, but in 15 years," said Hansen.

Hansen feels much of the information collected for the former committee continues to be pertinent. It will be distributed in advance to committee members, along with updated population figures, for study before the committee meets. The board has directed that meeting time be a minimal burden for committee members.

To that end, board member John Kempton outlined an agenda that will complete the process within a maximum of five meetings. Kempton will serve as a facilitator of the committee.

Although the board considered five possible options, only three were deemed practical. Several board members voiced strong opinions that adding portable facilities or introducing split scheduling are not conducive to quality education.

Kempton said the review committee will be empowered to choose to renovate or add on to existing structures; build a new middle school; or build a new high school. After the choice is made, the committee will make decisions on the scope of the enterprise, including size, funding, and supervision of construction.

While the options are more clearly defined and limited than for the previous facility review, board members agreed the committee will actually have more power of decision.

"They'll have to reach a consensus," said Kempton, "and when you reach consensus there is compromise." Kempton said the board definitely does not want the committee to have the perception that "it's our way of getting what we want."

It was noted board members and administration will act only as resource and advisory personnel and will have no vote within the committee. Hansen, Kempton, board president Mary Jason, the three building princi-

EJ man arrested for bank robbery

BY KEITH MATHENY
Contributing Writer

A preliminary exam is scheduled this afternoon for an East Jordan man charged with the armed robbery of a Mancelona bank June 15.

Paul Isaacs, 28, was arrested in Detroit June 22 by the Michigan State Police Fugitive Task Force. After being transported back to Bellaire by Antrim County Sheriff Dale Roggenbeck, Isaacs was arraigned June 23 at the 87th District Court in Bellaire, charged with one count of armed robbery and one count of committing a felony with a firearm.

About $7,500 was stolen from the FMB Mancelona branch on US-131 June 15. The Antrim County Sheriff Department received a tip the following day that Isaacs may have robbed the bank, and that he might be in the Detroit area.

Police recovered $2,200 in cash stolen from the bank, which they traced from serial numbers; the suspected getaway car, a 1986 Chevrolet Nova; and a handgun which may have been used in the robbery — all in a home where police had spotted Isaacs.

The suspect will be represented by court-appointed attorney Janet Mistele of Elk Rapids. He is being held in the Antrim County Jail, in lieu of $250,000 bond.

Central Lake: Future visits past

This year, Central Lake High School students learned first-hand about their home town history from the folks who have actually been there.

A project in Jim Dewey's ninth and 10th-grade social studies class gave students the opportunity to interview one-on-one some of Central Lake's most esteemed citizens, many of whom represent several generations of local families.

Art teacher Debbie McDowell distributed photographs of some of the many unique homes in the village and, using their choice of medium, students designed their versions of local architecture.

Torch Journal contributing writer Priscilla Arcure, as a member of the Central Lake Historical Society, was instrumental in orchestrating the projects. She is very interested in local architecture, photographing and collecting information on over 100 area homes. Her photographs were used for the art project.

"Many of the homes can be traced to lumbering days," said Arcure. "House plans those days weren't as available as they are today and some plans were obtained through mail order catalogs." She noted that individualized versions of the same house plan each have their own character and are excellent examples of the designs of the period.

Teachers were enthusiastic about the project.

"It gave students a sense of pride in their town," said Dewey. "I think it helped them see past their own lives."

Arcure said she hopes the project will continue next year, and expand into the English department, as well. She said members of the society feel it is a wonderful way to expose young people to Central Lake's interesting history.

"The society was impressed with the cooperation from the teachers and students and we wish to extend our gratitude," she concluded.

The society hopes to have the artwork on display at a local business in the near future. The interviews will be published in the Torch as a series, beginning today with Jo Somerville by Missy McKay and Shawn Scott.

INTERVIEW

Jo Somerville

We learned a lot from our interview with Mrs. Somerville. We found out she was born in Rogers City. Both of her parents died when she was young. As a result she moved in with the Burns family, just outside of Central Lake. She moved around the age of 13.

She attended Central Lake schools, and had many interesting experiences here. She used to get to school by walking. They had sports then, but she did not play any.

We found out she married Glen Somerville. She met him at church dances. He later died of cancer. She had four children. Their names are Barbara, Maureen, Jim and Ken. They all attended Central Lake schools, too.

Mrs. Somerville said most of the kids in Central Lake used to work in the canning factories in Ellsworth and Central Lake. She worked at the factory in Ellsworth.

They did a variety of things for fun. One thing they did was go to church dances. Another thing they did for fun was to go to free movies, which they held in town on Wednesdays. She said everyone used to love going to the free movies.

They also liked to go sledding. Many of the children would slide down Dean Hill, but she enjoyed sledding down Esseltine Hill.

She talked about WWII a little bit. She told us that her grandfather served in WWII. Both of her sons were also in the service.

She also talked about Smallagen Smith Store. She said that everyone used to go there, until it eventually burned down. There used to be two banks and two doctor offices. The post office was located about where the Chatterbox is now.

We learned a lot about Central Lake from our interview with Mrs. Somerville.

Photographer featured in Traverse

East Jordan photographer Karen Walker will be featured at the Traverse Area Arts Council gallery, 106 1/2 E. Front Street in Traverse City. An opening reception will be held Fri., July 1 from 6 to 8 p.m. at the gallery. The exhibition will be on display July 1-30 and the gallery will be open Tuesday through Friday from 2-6 p.m. and Saturday from 11-3 p.m.

Traverse area artists Steve Ballance, Cathy Look and Sheila Stafford will also be featured at the exhibit.

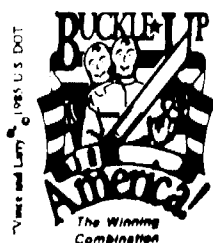

Walker, along with Ballance and Stafford, works predominantly in photography, and will be showing recent work involving the figure in unconventional photographic processes. Look, a potter, will feature an installation of new work called "Rock Pots".

Walker is a professional photographer. The technique she is using is called chromoskedastic, which means color by light scattering. By means of this technique she is able to create colorful and otherworldly images from black and white photographs.

Her work has been displayed at juried shows in Petoskey and Traverse City and invitational shows in East Jordan and Marquette. Walker also works in the more traditional form of portraiture in her East Jordan studio, in the Walker Building on Water St.

Tax increase for CL village unopposed

CENTRAL LAKE – Only five community members attended a June 13 public hearing on increasing village property taxes. But the small amount of the increase – 0.18 of a mill specified in public notices prior to the meeting – may have been the reason.

Originally, the village collected a total of 11 mills (9 mills for general operating – eventually reduced to 8.5; 1 for streets; 1 for water), village president Don Siefried noted. That 10.5 total was eroded in 1993 due to the Headlee Amendment, which requires taxing entities to rollback millages when rising property values create revenues that exceed the rate of inflation.

To avoid the rollback, a public hearing to propose collection of the full amount must be held. Since the village opted to bypass the hearing process last year, the 10.5 mill total was reduced to 10.32 mills. Last Monday night's move will restore the lost fraction.

"Basically, this will allow us to collect two-tenths of a mill more than 1993," Siefried explained. "It will clear up a lot of bookkeeping by rounding the numbers back to what they were."

The village has the authority to collect as much as 17.5 mills without going to voters for approval, Siefried noted.

In response to the only audience question – "Why not go back to the original nine mills?" – Siefried said the proposal had not been advertised at that amount. The 10.5 mill proposal will be adequate to fund anticipated needs, he said.

The SEV of village property increased by over $1 million in 1994, assessor Norm Perkins subsequently stated.

Fire chief sends thanks for donations

I'D LIKE TO take this opportunity to thank you and your paper for running a short article and photo of the student council donating money to our fire department. Their donation is greatly appreciated and I'm sure the coverage they received from your paper is also appreciated.

Shortly after that day, another donation was received from another organization. The East Jordan Bridge Club of East Jordan has been a supporter of the East Jordan Fire Department for many years. Again this year, they have made a donation which will also go towards the purchase of the spare SCBA bottles. Their donation of $150 is very much appreciated and we would like to thank them.

Many businesses, organizations and persons in our community are supporters of the fire department. We can never put into words the thanks that are owed to all of them. We hope these two words will show our gratitude. THANK YOU!

A Word Fitly Spoken: Reflections on patriotism

"Every purpose is established by counsel: and with good advice make war."

KJV Proverbs 20:18

"And if ye go to war in your land against the enemy that oppreseth you, then shall ye blow an alarm with the trumpets; and ye shall be remembered before the Lord Your God ..."

KJV Numbers 10:09

As my generation is prone to honoring our country, the United States of America and our symbolic flag with the stars and stripes in red, white and blue, we want to continue remembering our wars and the "fallen" heroes as well as the living heroes who fought for freedom.

A recent television program depicted D-Day 1944 in its entirety. The program included Movie-Tone News photos of our troops landing on Omaha and Utah beaches with the British on Sword Beach, along with graphic drawings of events. Chaos reigned and many were killed.

My husband and many other GIs spoke of the stained, bloody water and beaches, but they did what they had to do. The interviewer was well informed, polite and very thorough during his interviews. The program was well researched and honestly portrayed. The entire war effort entailed fighting for freedom, democracy, and a better world.

It was emotional seeing the crosses in the American cemetery in France. I felt resentment towards President Clinton and irony that he left our country so he needn't serve in our armed forces during the Vietnam War. Yes, it was an unpopular war, but each American should be loyal to his or her country.

By Anne F. Messerschmidt

American and British veterans and statesmen, a French freedom fighter, Bill Maudlin, (the cartoonist for Stars and Stripes), and many reporters were interviewed. Each was asked what he wanted the world to know about WWII. The French especially praised and thanked our armed forces for liberating them.

The following are excerpts from a dissertation by General Douglas MacArthur printed in the Sword of the Lord, July 2, 1993:

On Patriotism

"It is their sacrifice, their success, that you honor; men from the farm, the city, the school room, the college campus; men not dedicated to the profession of arms, men not primarily skilled in the art of war, men most amazingly like the men you see and meet and know each day of your life ... but men inspired, animated and enabled by a sublime cause in the defense of their country, of their native land, of their very hearthstones.

"The most divine of all human sentiments and impulses guided them, the spirit and willingness to sacrifice. He who dares to die, who lays his life on the altar of his nation's needs, is beyond doubt the noblest development of mankind. These men were my comrades in arms."

These were patriots, pure and plain; no exploitation or extravagance of propaganda dimmed their sensibilities ... Just the simple fact their country called them. Like Stephen Decatur said, 'My Country—may she always be right, but right or wrong, my Country.'

Be proud to be called patriots or nationalists if it means that you love your country and will place your life if need be at the service of your flag.

Perhaps you've noticed the despicable manner in which many rebellious people desecrate our flag. About four years ago, while living in another town and belonging to a veterans organization, we utilized

THE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE

God Shed His Grace On Us

"...proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof."

— Leviticus 25:10

It is fitting to remember on this anniversary of our Declaration of Independence that the bell which rang out the news in Philadelphia that first Fourth of July bore that biblical inscription. We, as Americans, should most certainly give thanks to God on this occasion, if not always, for the heavenly blessings we have received as a nation. Katharine Lee Bates summed it up in her anthem, "American the Beautiful": "God shed his grace on thee." What other country in history has been so endowed with God's plenty, brotherhood and peace? True, there have been times when we have strayed from those God-given blessings, yet comparison with the lot of other peoples in the world should prove how fortunate we have been in God's grace.

Local students attend young people's citizenship seminar

Nearly 200 Michigan high school juniors and seniors were on the campus of Calvin College, in Grand Rapids, to take part in the annual Young People's Citizenship Seminar. The seminar, which ran from June 20 to 24, is sponsored annually by the Michigan Farm Bureau and is dedicated to helping prepare Michigan youth for their role as participants in the democratic process.

Selected by the Antrim County Farm Bureau were Jodi Veenstra, Josh Weiland, and Dawn Brookins, all of Ellsworth.

During the week-long seminar students had the opportunity to participate as voters, campaigners, precinct delegates and candidates in a mock election process for political office.

Experts in the fields of economics, world cultures and governments, and personal motivation provided background to the students on their role as citizens of the United States and the world.

The students heard many interesting speakers, including Michigan House Representative Kenneth Sikkema; a teacher; a tri-athlete; an agricultural economist; a Ukrainian refugee, and several others at the seminar.

Historians review high school project

The June meeting of the Central Lake Area Historical Society was held June 6 in the Governmental Building. Following a business meeting members enjoyed a review of the high school project that will soon be completed.

The Historical Society will purchase a 2-drawer file cabinet to be placed in the reception room of the Governmental Building for storing material received.

Due to the Fourth of July falling on the first Monday, the next meeting of the Historical Society will be at 7 p.m. on July 11 in the Governmental Building. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

Now, when your flag becomes tattered or faded, save it until the following June, for some veterans organizations have a flag burning ceremony. I believe you can also bury your flag.

DO NOT discard your flag in your trash. Contact the VFW or American Legion or their auxiliaries for information.

Sharon Kay Russell

Sharon Russell knows the value of living in Charlevoix. After all, she is a Mortgage Interviewer for CB North.

Originally from Ellsworth, Sharon "has always wanted to live in Charlevoix". That dream came true for Sharon, but not before she spent time in Texas, eventually returning to Ellsworth in 1983. It was then she began a career in banking that she fondly refers to as "a family tradition" and came to live in Charlevoix.

When Sharon is not making dreams of homeownership come true for her customers, she is spending time with her family, right here in Charlevoix, boating and biking with the many friends she has made here.

■ Those from Atwood who attended the free movie show at Central Lake Wednesday night reported the picture as very good.

■ Four of the Atwood boys went fishing the other night till seven o'clock the next morning and sure were lucky, as they did not have any fish to carry home with them.

■ A farewell party was given by Board of Trade members for Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Schepers Wednesday evening.

Mr. Schepers has purchased a half interest, with his brother, in a warehouse at Lake City and he and his family will leave Friday for their new home.

■ I wish to announce my candidacy for nomination for sheriff of Antrim County on the Republican ticket at the September primaries. I will appreciate any support the electors can give me. Maude Kittle.

■ Mr. and Mrs. Killebick and children "Dana" and "Madeline" leaving motored up Wednesday for a visit.

Hosts needed to share home, heart, heritage

ASSE International Student Exchange Programs, a non-profit, public benefit organization, would like you to share your home, heart and heritage with some very special people. Host an exchange student for the coming school year.

These high school students are well-screened, fully insured and come with their own spending money. They are from Scandinavia, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Great Britain, Holland, Spain, France, Portugal, Poland, Japan, at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Miles, Miles District.

The Central Lake Torch June 29, 1950

■ Maxine Burnham, daughter of Jake Burnham of Eastport, has been chosen to be a member of the two-week All-State High School Chorus conducted by the University of Michigan School of Music at the National Music Camp, Interlochen from July 31 to Aug. 13.

■ The garden owners in Central Lake would be sincerely grateful if the boys who are hunting night crawlers in their gardens would look elsewhere for their bait.

There have been numerous complaints that the boys are trampling the flowers and vegetables to the point where they are beyond recognition.

■ Lightning struck the home of Mrs. Rose Calvin on Intermediate Lake, three miles south of here. The lightning tore the linoleum and ripped the back of one chair. Damage was estimated at $25.

■ Mrs. Charity Babcock Fisk of Kalkaska, a former resident of Central Lake, is in Lockwood General Hospital at Petoskey for treatment of a fractured hip.

■ Kenneth McKay of Central Lake came down to the Torch office last Sunday morning to pick up his Sunday paper. There in front of the office, he was very happy to find Lester Vandenberg, an old friend of his and former resident of Central Lake. Vandenberg is now living in Midland.

McKay said the last time he saw Vandenberg, he was on a ship with the Army Engineers being deployed from Marseilles to Japan. "That time was a chance meeting," McKay said. "He was an officer and I was a non-commissioned officer. I would not have met him if I hadn't been on guard duty on the ship because the officers and the enlisted men lived in different quarters. We were 23 days out of Marseilles when we met." The two old friends were schoolmates here in Central Lake.

■ The Dudley Sherman family of Detroit has divided. The parents are there while the lady's father, Mr. Gordon White, and the Sherman children, Nancy, "Sparky" and Stevie, are at the cottage on Torch Lake in Eastport. Nancy is decorating the cottage to surprise the folks when they come.

■ Dave Matchett won the bushel basket of groceries Saturday evening at the Atwood Thrift Market.

■ The married couples club of Atwood Reformed Church are installing a new church sign on the corner of Dutchtown Road and US-31. It's a replica of the church.

■ Mr. and Mrs. Bernie DeYoung and Mr. and Mrs. William Boss, Miles District, went to Johannesburg last Friday to attend the Grass Day held there.

■ August Bolman, Miles District, is having a milk house of cement blocks built on his place.

■ Herman Hoot of Ellsworth returned home Friday after a 10-day stay at Charlevoix Hospital for an appendectomy.

■ Grant A. Hastings, Ellsworth, is building an attached garage to his home this week.

■ Several neighbors and friends gathered at the Ellsworth home of Mrs. Gertie Docter Monday evening to admire two beautiful flowers on a night-blooming cereus plant.

SEVERAL STARS of 'Neon Moment' pose with some of the brightly colored props that were an integral part of the show.

Neon Moment plays to delighted audience

NeonMoment, a black-light musical production featuring 45 performers from Bergmann Center in Charlevoix, played to an audience of 140 very appreciative people at the East Jordan High School auditorium.

Actors in the June 10 debut mimed and moved to music and narration, employing a sound tape developed by Dan Bennett of Extended Play in East Jordan. Fluorescent props were an integral part of the action.

Bergmann is a work-activity center for developmentally disabled adults from several counties. All the students in the production were members of Straits Area Community Education classes, one of many programs offered in cooperation with Bergmann.

Blacklight, black backdrops and black clothing obscure the background, while white and neon colors illuminate the action, according to directors Marlynn Hughes and Laurie David.

"Talent is highlighted," said Hughes, "and handicap is minimized."

The actors performed a diverse program which included a brightly colored silent brass band led by a majorette; a Hawaiian hula dancer; neon costumed fish, frogman and diver "swimming" to

Under the Sea; wheelchair Locomotion; Elvis singing Hound Dog; and Achey-Breaky dancers with fluorescent pink, cracked hearts.

The whole cast came on stage and waved white-gloved hands for the finale, From a Distance. When the lights came up to illuminate the magic, the audience honored the performers with a standing ovation.

"A program like this is only possible because of a network of believers who trust in ability, not disability," said Hughes, a community education teacher at Bergmann. "This trust was rewarded a hundred-fold at the Neon Moment."

Hughes said the cast and directors are getting ready to perform the show again some time in July.

Funds for the production were provided from a $550 teacher mini-grant from the State of Michigan Department of Education. The program was dedicated to Hughes' cousin Bonnie Deschamps, who brought the idea back from Quebec City where she saw a similar production.

Student is Ferris grad

Jill Marie Cary of Central Lake graduated from Ferris State University, Big Rapids May 7, with a bachelor of science degree in medical technology.

Cary, a 1988 graduate of Central Lake High School, is the daughter of Ward and Jeanne Cary of Central Lake. She is employed at Northern Michigan Hospital in Petoskey.

Prize purse reaches six figures

Michigan's finest amateur and professional golfers will compete for a record six-figure prize purse in the state's oldest golf tournament.

The purse for The Detroit Newspapers Michigan Open, June 27-30, will be $103,000.

"We're confident that the record purse this year will draw the finest field ever," said Kim Chappell, the Grand Traverse Resort managing director.

Brent Veenstra, head professional at the Washtenaw Country Club in Ypsilanti, who shot a course record 62 in 1991, won the 1993 event.

Veenstra took home $13,000 of the $96,000 total prize purse.

This year, the top finisher will take home

$14,000.

Grand Traverse Resort has hosted the 79-year-old tournament since 1981.

Last year the resort signed a three year contract with the Michigan Section PGA to host it through 1995.

The Bear, designed by Jack Nicklaus, will mark its tenth anniversary as home course for the Michigan Open this year.

Garden Club will tour roses in July

The Lake Country Garden Club will be touring for their monthly meeting in July – a Rose Garden Tour, that is. Cherie Hogan, a charter member of the Cherry Capital Rose Society and the Lake Country Garden Club, will host the garden club at her home on Six Mile Lake Road Mon., July 11, at 7:30 p.m. for a tour of her rose garden. She has been growing roses since 1987 and was inspired by her grandmother who always grew roses. There are over 100 roses in her garden. Hogan is also presently designing a rose garden for the courtyard of the Meadow Brook Medical Care Facility.

Rose culture – the different kinds of roses, how to mulch, how to spray, how to prune and how to put roses to bed for the winter – will be the topic of the evening.

A board meeting will be held on the same evening directly before the tour at Sharon Gardner's house also on Six Mile Lake Road beginning at 6:30 p.m. All members will receive a telephone call with driving directions. For further information about memberships, call 544-2112 or 544-3931.

MADD supports new underage drinking law

The message is clear and Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) wants it driven all the way home: If you're under the legal drinking age in Michigan and you drive, you lose your driver's license and face other penalties.

The days are over when the underage drinking driver is held to the same standard of illegal intoxication as the adult motorist who can purchase and consume alcohol legally.

Last week in Lansing Governor John Engler signed into law what is being called "zero tolerance" for underage drinking and driving. As of Nov. 1, 1994, those under age 21 caught drinking and driving — even one beer in their system — may lose their licenses, face fines and be required to do community service.

House Representative Frank Fitzgerald (R), District 71 (Grand Ledge), was the primary sponsor of the life-saving legislation.

The new law lowers the illegal Blood Alcohol Concentration (BAC) to .02 percent for underage drinking drivers. It is illegal for minors to purchase or consume alcohol yet they are not charged with an impaired driving violation until they reach the same illegal levels as adults (.08 and .10 BAC). This change to a lower BAC will make it easier to enforce and prosecute underage drinking and driving violations before youths reach the deadlier blood alcohol levels.

MADD witnessed the bill signing ceremony as an endorsement of the hard-won changes.

Bethany Goodman, Executive Director, MADD, Michigan, said, "This new law removes a deadly inconsistency that has made it too easy for too long for our teens to engage in a deadly game of 'beat the system.' Unfortunately, when they lost, too often it was the ultimate loss. Let them face losing their driving privileges rather than a limb, a friend, their abilities through brain injury, their potential or their futures.

When adults finally get serious about this deadly mixed message we've been tolerating, we'll see a serious change in the way young people respond. To young people, it's inconceivable that they could possibly be injured or die in a drunk driving crash; maybe when enough of their friends lose their driving privileges, they'll begin to think seriously about what they value and will change their behavior long enough to grow up safely."

MADD supported the legislation as a method to deter underage drinking and driving and help prevent the related drunk driving crash deaths and injuries.

Evidence shows that young people are impaired at lower BAC levels than are older people. A teenage driver is at as great a risk of being in a crash at a low BAC, as the adult driver is at a much higher BAC. Experts cite the combination of driver inexperience and a lower tolerance of alcohol for the disproportionately high involvement of the underage drinking driver in traffic crashes.

Involvement in a fatal crash increases as the amount of alcohol in the body increases. By the time the BAC reaches .08 for the 16- to 19-year-old driver, their crash risk is 40 times more than the adult risk, and at .10 BAC, the fatal crash risk has increased to 400 times greater! These young drivers imperil not only themselves, but also all those they encounter.

TORCH LAKE TOWNSHIP

REGULAR MEETING
JUNE 14, 1994 - 7:30 P.M.
TOWNSHIP HALL - EASTPORT

Present: Schmidt, Cowell, Smedley, Hubbell, Dawson. Audience: 18.

1. Meeting was called to order at 7:30 p.m. and pledge given to flag.

2. Minutes of May 10 Regular Meeting and June 3 Special Meeting were approved and filed for audit.

3. May Check #8716 to assessor for $1250.00; Township Checks 8717-8751 totaling $11537.97 and Fire District Checks #2570-1583 totaling $4781.17 were approved and filed for audit.

4. Zoning Administrator has issued 5 permits and 2 sign permits since last meeting. The March report was included on the report submitted from 2/9-4/12 and note stating it was in this month's report was a comment left on computer in error.

Fire District has had 2 runs and 1 car accident; 1 fireman is attending arson school; other firemen are taking extrication training; 2 firemen have left the department (Ken Kamp and Marc Anderson) due to pressures from their business. We thank them for their volunteer service and hope they are able to return in the future.

Cable TV has been delayed due to waiting for triple cable. Hopefully a test will be made in the Township hall on June 24th.

7. Annual Meeting Advisory Resolutions were discussed. When the Road and Access Advisory Comm. meets in the future they will attempt to do so an hour before the Township Board Meeting. They are not required to meet requirements of the Open Meetings Act. They are working on a priority list for roadwork and will receive a recommended list from the Antrim County Road Comm.

No member of the Board is in favor of removing Zoning Administrator. An improved job description is being worked on by J. Hubbell. J. Norris stated he felt Z.A. should attend all meetings at which zoning matters are discussed and P. Cutting requested this be noted in job description.

Resolution Z.A. job be filled with a non-attorney persons was defeated at the Annual Meeting so it was not discussed further.

Advisory Resolution Township cannot buy, lease or accept a gift of property without voter approval - P.A. 16 does cover the purchase of property. Board feels if a gift is feasible they should take advantage of it.

Adv. Res. re soliciting competitive bids for legal service was discussed. Use of attorneys has increased due to complex problems which has precipitated increase in legal bills which would occur no matter who was doing work. The Board is satisfied with the firm handling legal work at this time.

6. Letter from Jack Mayer about DNR and boat launch site discussed under public comments.

7. a) MTA Legislature Conference on Mackinac Island - 8/17 & 18.

b) MTA Summer Township Officials Institute in Marquette - July 19 & 21.

8. Legal update:

C. Allarding - complaint signed.

Avoid eye injuries from fireworks

The American Academy of Ophthalmology encourages everyone to leave the handling and detonating of fireworks to professionals at public fireworks displays.

"There are three main types of eye injuries caused by fireworks: burns to the eye or eyelid, bruising and actual penetration of the eye," explained George Blankenship, MD, professor and chair of the department of ophthalmology at Penn State University.

Bottle rockets are responsible for 82 percent of fireworks injuries: smaller rockets travel from 35 to 75 mph, while larger rockets reach speeds of up to 200 mph. They fly erratically, explaining the high incidence of bystander injuries. The bottles and cans used to launch them often explode, showering fragments of glass and metal. Even those fireworks perceived as safe can cause painful eye injuries. Sparklers, which are often held by young children, burn at 1800 degrees Fahrenheit, nearly hot enough to melt gold.

With at least 70 percent of fireworks injuries occurring to bystanders, everyone is at risk when amateurs handle fireworks.

The Academy recommends that everyone handling fireworks observe these basic safety guidelines:

- Use only legal devices. Legal fireworks are printed with the manufacturer's name, address and a cautionary label. A firework lacking this information is very likely to be illegal. Never attempt to make your own fireworks.
- Never allow children to handle explosive fireworks.
- Always wear glasses or safety goggles when lighting fireworks. Spectators at backyard fireworks displays should also consider wearing protective eye wear.
- If an injury does occur, do not press, rub or touch the eye; seek immediate care at a hospital emergency room.

Have a safe, fun Fourth!

TORCH LAKE TOWNSHIP ZONING ORDINANCE AMENDMENTS

The Torch Lake Township Board adopted the following changes to the Zoning Ordinance at their meeting of June 14, 1994 which will become effective July 15, 1994.

Section 22.02B - Violations and Penalty was approved to read as follows (new wording adopted is underlined): "Any person, firm or corporation who violates, disobeys, omits, neglects or refuses to comply with or who resists enforcement of any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) or imprisoned not more than thirty (30) days, or both, such fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the Court, together with court costs. Every day that violation is permitted to exist shall constitute a separate offense."

Forty acres located in Section 3 and bounded by Golden Beach Drive on the west and Creswell Road on the south owned by McLachlan Orchards was approved for rezoning from Timber Reserve to Planned Residential Development (PRD).

A copy of these changes is available at the Township Hall for inspection from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon Monday thru Wednesday.

'Liquor' settles village dust — and saves money

BY MARY FREY
Editorial Director

CENTRAL LAKE—Switching to a different product may change dust control practices in the village — and save hundreds of dollars in the process.

The substance — a pulp wood by-product known as Lignin Liquor — has been widely used in Sweden and California for more than 30 years. Some northwest Michigan communities — Ellsworth, East Jordan and Boyne City among them — have been among the more recent converts to the water-soluble dust suppressant.

DPW Superintendent Ron Donaldson told village officials at their June 13 meeting that Central Lake has joined those ranks on an experimental basis for

"It washes off easy and it's about as close to DNR-approved as you can get these days," he stated, noting the product has already been applied in Thurston Park.

Although initial application costs for Lignin Liquor are higher ($900 as opposed to $736 for salt brine), there should be no need for a second and third application, as required last year with the brine, Donaldson said.

According to Scott Way, president of Northern Michigan Dust Control, one advantage of the liquor is its continued effectiveness, even in dry weather.

Another plus is the binding nature of lignin, which is separated from wood fibers during the paper-making process. This property allows lignin to absorb onto soils and clays and form cohesive bonds.

That interaction is very different from what happens with calcium chloride, another popular dust-suppressant that is loosely concentrated on road surfaces, from which it is easily blown, Way noted.

"We've tried more exotic products, but we just keep coming back to this one," he said.

Charlevoix woman dies in auto crash

A Charlevoix woman died June 21 in a one-car accident on Marion Center Road, a half-mile north of Atwood Road in Banks Township.

Leslie Powers, 26, was traveling southbound on the road when she lost control on a curve, crossing the center line and rolling the vehicle. She was pronounced dead at the scene from injuries sustained in the accident.

Assisting the Antrim County Sheriff Department at the scene were the Charlevoix County Sheriff Department, Banks Township Rescue Squad and East Jordan Ambulance.

Powers was not wearing a seatbelt at the time of the crash. The Antrim County Sheriff Department is still investigating the accident.

Boat accident victim still recovering

The injuries an Indian River man suffered in a boating accident on Torch Lake last year are still serious enough to keep him off the job, according to his parents Henry and Frances Holser of Central Lake.

The June 10 incident which left James Holser, 38, with broken bones in his leg and pelvis happened when Antrim County Sheriff Department marine deputy Scott McCartney struck the slowly-trolling boat with the faster-moving patrol boat.

Henry said a long pin inserted in James' hip and leg was removed March 21, but he is not expected to return to his job at the Indian River Department of Natural Resources office for at least six months. Henry said his son's left leg is a half-inch shorter than the right, and he has a limp.

Henry believes that if and when James goes back to work, he may not be able to return to his physically demanding duties as a firefighter for the DNR. Meanwhile, a lawsuit filed last year in Antrim County Circuit Court is continuing.

"The county claimed governmental immunity, so Judge Tom Power dismissed the county's part of it," he stated. The Holsers are appealing that decision.

Since then, they have added marine patrol supervisor Jerry Klooster to the suit. Antrim County Sheriff Dale Roggenbeck said Klooster resigned some time after the accident for unrelated reasons.

Roggenbeck said McCartney is no longer employed by the department, but no changes in hiring or training practices have been instituted since the accident. Marine officers must be 18 or older and be able to swim and perform CPR.

New officers must attend the beginners marine school class in June, while administrative personnel are sent to an advanced class held in May. The classes are administered by the state.

Roggenbeck said McCartney completed the beginners class in 1992.

"I don't quite understand how they can stick someone behind the wheel of a boat with less than 50 hours boating experience, and expect them to enforce the boating regulations," stated James. "I think the sheriff department may want to take another look."

"I was extremely active, but now I'm restricted. Doctors say I'll get some of it back, but I won't ever be back where I was."
