Petoskey girl nearly drowns at EJ Tourist Park

The Charlevoix County Sheriff's Department and the East Jordan City Police Department are investigating a swimming accident at East Jordan Tourist Park in which a Petoskey girl nearly drowned.

According to the sheriff's department, the 11-year-old girl was swimming on a sand bar in a non-swimming area near the Tourist Park with her brothers and friends when she went underwater and didn't come back up. The East Jordan Fire Department dive team and EMS were called to the scene. The girl was located by dive team members in approximately 20 feet of water; she had been underwater for at least 25 minutes prior to being located.

East Jordan EMS transported the girl to Charlevoix Area Hospital without a pulse. As of 6:30 p.m., Charlevoix Area Hospital had a pulse on the girl; she has since been on life support and was scheduled to be airlifted to a hospital in Grand Rapids.

The Charlevoix City dive team was called to assist the East Jordan dive team in the search.

No further details were available at press time. The incident is still under investigation.

Local Glen's Market stores part of Spartan meat recall

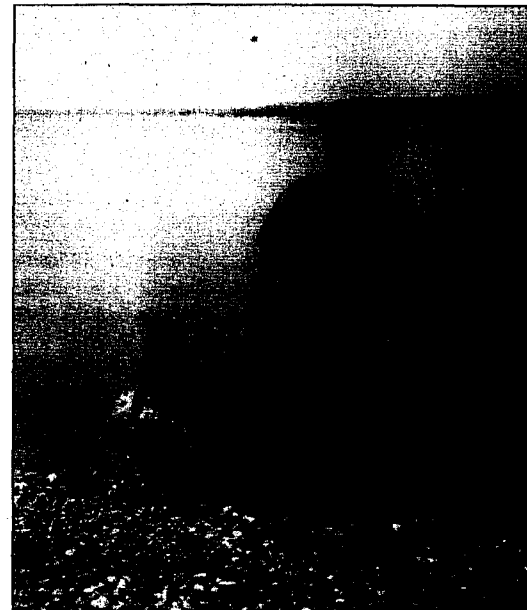

Spartan Stores, including Glen's Markets in Boyer City and East Jordan, have announced a voluntary recall of all ground beef products sold under the Glen's or ConAgra beef product label with a sell-by date between April 13 and July 12, 2002. Testing of ConAgra ground beef products by the United States Department of Agriculture indicated that E.coli 0156:H7, an organism that may cause serious illness in the very young, the elderly, pregnant women, and persons with weakened immune systems, was present.

The action is being taken in conjunction with the recall announced this week by ConAgra Beef Company of Greeley, Colo. According to Jeanne Norcross, director of Corporate Communications for Spartan Stores, Spartan purchased beef products from ConAgra during the time period specified. "All of the products involved in the recall should be returned for a full refund or replacement," Norcross said.

According to Norcross, Spartan Stores has received no confirmed reports of illness associated with the consumption of the recalled product. Consumers with questions about the recall can contact Spartan Stores at 1-800-451-8500.

Dog days of summer

Steamy days of late have had man's best friend panting for a turn in the water. Last weekend, Tim Barrett, left, treated his dogs to a leisurely dip in Lake Charlevoix at Boyer City's Tannery Beach, while another beachgoer required his pup to keep an eye on the ball.

Resignation leaves open seat on EJ city commission

After a conspicuous absence from recent commission meetings, East Jordan City Commissioner Shane Williams submitted his resignation citing a recent move to a home outside of the city limits.

At its regular meeting on Tuesday, July 16, the commission officially accepted Williams' resignation by a unanimous vote.

Elected to the four-year seat in 1999, Williams became a vocal critic of the East Jordan Fire Department, repeatedly calling for the resignations of both city administrator David White and fire chief Glen Thorman.

Early in his tenure on the commission, Williams, a volunteer firefighter, opted to assume inactive status after issues were raised regarding a potential conflict of interest.

According to city attorney Scott Beatty, the vacant seat created by Williams' resignation must be filled within 30 days of the commission's official action on the matter.

The city appointments committee is expected to have a recommendation to fill the seat by the next regular commission meeting, set for Tuesday, Aug. 6.

Once approved, the appointee will hold the seat until the end of Williams' elected term, which runs through November of 2003.

Results in on BC Market Study

■ Lakefront, river focal points of possible development

After several months in the making, the results of the DDA-commissioned Boyer City Market Study were unveiled at a special meeting held at city hall.

Presented by Howard Kohn, president of the Baltimore-based Chesapeake Group, the results were met by a cautious but interested reaction from audience members.

Though conclusions were many, the main crux of Kohn's presentation was that in terms of waterfront and downtown development, the city must take quick and decisive action.

"We do believe there should be good development on the lakefront, and that development is two-fold: on land and in the water," Kohn said. Lakefront development would include, according to recommendations, the expansion of commercial activity along the lakefront and the expansion of marina activity, and the relocation of municipal services off of waterfront property.

Understanding that such a position might be controversial to those protective of the waterfront property, Kohn also emphasized that such development should be undertaken with two primary principals in mind: continuous public access to the lakefront, and the maintenance of view vistas to the water, unimpacted by building structures.

According to DDA member Mark Kowalske, the recommendations have the potential to give the City a new take on waterfront development. "Those of us who have lived here, were born and raised here, are very protective of the water," Kowalske said. Kohn, he continued, "heavily stressed making sure to maintain that access to the public waterfront."

"I have sort of a narrow-minded approach to development, (but) his concept of pulling the stuff back from the water, either residential or retail, and allowing the public to maintain water access... That was new information to me," he said. "I thought it was either/or."

The market study was originally commissioned several months ago by the DDA, in order to facilitate planning for the future of the City, in a time where growth in and around the community is creating new issues for business and development.

The Chesapeake Group was chosen, Kowalske said, in part because it's a firm that has done a significant amount of work not only in northern Michigan but all over the country. "I feel like we've got somebody who knows what they're doing," he said.

Utilizing a variety of information-gathering techniques, including business surveys, face to face interviews, and telephone surveys, the group created a comparative analysis and worked up demand forecasts for the area concentrating on retail and related service activities in the Central

Polish Festival lines up family fun in Boyer Falls, Aug. 1-4

In its 28th year, the Boyer Falls Polish Festival promises an event packed with food, activities, and events sure to please every member of the family. The festival is scheduled this year for Aug. 1-4.

The fun kicks off on Thursday, Aug. 1, with the always-popular Oldies Night at 6 p.m., with a car show and cruise-in and the "Fabulous Oldies But Goodies" Band.

Friday, Aug. 2, is Youth Day, with special games and activities planned beginning at 10:30 a.m. at the Boyer Valley Township Fire Hall on Railroad Street. Registration will be from 10-10:30 a.m.

Other features of the day will include the opening of the Polka Tent, concessions, and carnival rides by Arnold Amusements. An Old Time Threshing and Steam Engine Show, Youth Parade, and Classic Tractor Pull will round out the day's fun, with the opening of the Flying Star Semi-Pro Rodeo topping things off.

Saturday is Family Day, and will feature a 5K Cross Country Run, the Grand Royale Parade, and the Heavy Pony and Horse Pull.

Dubbed Senior Citizen Day,

Sunday's highlights will include a Horseshoe Pitching Tournament and the Four-Wheel Drive Mud Run.

The Polka Tent and carnival rides will be open throughout the weekend, and Old Engine Shows will be held each day.

This year, the Polka Tent will feature several bands including the Polkalodians, Chad Przybylski and the Polka Rhythms, Roger Majeski and the Harmony Kings, Casey Homel and the World's Honkiest Polka Band, the Tenbusch Brothers, and Aaron Socha and His Polish Power.

The festival, which draws visitors from all over the state, and country, is organized by a volunteer committee, and run year after year by volunteers. Said festival committee member Geneva Towne, "We could not make this possible without everybody's help. We work hard, but have fun."

To register for events or for a full schedule of events, call the Boyer Area Chamber of Commerce at 582-6222.

THIS YEAR'S Little Miss and Little Mister are Caila Coale and Maxwell Reed, both of Boyer Falls. Caila, 8, will be entering third grade at Boyer Falls School this fall, and Maxwell, 6, will be entering second grade.

Both Caila and Maxwell earned their festival honors through an annual coloring contest at Boyer Falls School. The two will occupy a place of honor atop the official Polish Festival float in the Grand Royale Parade on Saturday, Aug. 3. Caila is the daughter of Cheryl and Chip Coale, and Maxwell is the son of Laura Reed, all of Boyer Falls.

HONORED CITIZEN Tom Matelski will enjoy this year's parade from a different vantage point, riding along the parade route rather than watching from the sidelines as usual. "It's a lot of fun," said Matelski of the honor. At 78 Matelski is a lifetime resident of Boyer Falls and still farms at his family home on M-75, keeping a herd of 45 milk cows. "I'm a cowboy without a horse," Matelski jokes of his hands-on cattle-moving technique. Retired in the late 90s from work as a gravedigger in area

Flywheelers tractor show on tap July 26-28

This weekend, visitors to the 15th annual Walloon Lake Antique Tractor, Engine, and Craft Show can travel back in time for a weekend of old-fashioned family fun. Scheduled for July 26-28 at the Flywheelers Showgrounds, the event this year will feature kit tractors, "Doodle Bugs," and Alamo engines.

Each day will open with special ceremonies at 9 a.m., followed by days filled with blacksmith, basket factory, and veneer mill demonstrations, horse plowing and tilling demonstrations, the popular "Parade of Power" at 2 p.m. every day, and evening tractor safaris.

Special features include a chance to see and hear the original Ironton Ferry Diesel Engine in operation; the demonstration of a Water Ram pump; and turning up the soil turn-of-the-century style with a six-bottom Prairie Plow.

Also on the grounds will be a large flea market, arts and crafts, with both sales and demonstrations.

Exhibitors are welcome to dust off that old engine, shine up an antique tractor, polish up the old spinning wheel, or bring in an old-time musi-

Business District. The group also used their conclusions to guide the creation of a Strategic Implementation Program, which, Kohn said, "is the most controversial part of the work."

Of the surveys, Kohn noted that one interesting point is the similarities in the issues raised by both the business community and area residents. "The two surveys are virtually identical," Kohn said of the results, which included key issues like parking, infrastructure repairs and improvements, attracting and retaining employees, year-round residential patronage, and affordable housing for families.

Though parking issues were one point raised by both business and residential, some of the comments gathered were complimentary, and overall, Kohn said, the study indicated that parking in the downtown area is adequate at this time, though directional signage and better enforcement of regulations might be called for.

Other issues, like attracting downtown businesses, are key, though according to the study the downtown area is "pretty healthy" compared to other communities Kohn has worked in.

Results indicated that the future success of downtown Boyne City will be primarily "dependent upon maintaining the current base of business activity and expanding upon that base."

Methods recommended to achieve this include an apprenticeship program to assure continuity of current locally-owned small businesses; architectural assistance, continued streetscape improvements; continued work on the Riverwalk, including potential expansion and improvements to appearance of buildings abutting the Riverwalk property; event expansion and collective marketing efforts; and commercial development of key sites in the downtown area.

The study also suggests capitalizing on the fact that the City has access to two unique bodies of water, Lake Charlevoix and the Boyne River, and finding new ways to tie those assets into the commercial aspects of downtown.

Included in the study are multiple marketing ideas and strategies to promote and enhance potential development, as well as creative ways to fund such efforts.

Now that the results are in, however, it's up to City bodies to move forward on the information. Kohn emphasized the necessity of partnership, including the DDA and the City, but also the need to bring the Boyne Area Chamber of Commerce into the fold in terms of proactive planning and development.

The idea, according to chamber director Scott MacKenzie, has merit. "I agree with most everything I heard [at the meeting]," MacKenzie said. "I strongly feel the chamber should be an influence and major part [of program implementation]."

MacKenzie did, however, cite concern over the resources the chamber currently has to work with.

Still, he said, "it's really important that we do work with the DDA and the City. I can see a chamber helping to take a leadership role in helping to build a consensus and gather public feedback."

As for current plans to utilize the marketing study results, no action has yet been taken by either the DDA or the City. According to city manager Eric Strahl, the city commission will likely discuss the results of the study in the near future, and discuss the possibility of meeting with members of the DDA and chamber.

From the DDA standpoint, according to Kowalske, the hope is to, in the next 30 to 60 days, meet with City boards to discuss possible implementations. "We're probably going to have to tweak it a bit," Kowalske said of the plan laid out by Chesapeake.

"My personal feelings are that I'm a little more open-minded now about working with developers in the private sector," Kowalske said.

"Our chances of working together are a little better now. Now, it's like 'maybe we can do this and not lose the waterfront to the public.'"

HEALTH TIPS FROM MEDICAP PHARMACY

TREATING ACCIDENTAL POISONING (PART II)

Many poison control centers now recommend having activated charcoal on hand at home as well as syrup of ipecac. Activated charcoal has been used in emergency rooms as a poison antidote for years. It binds with some toxins and carries them out of the body. A recent study showed that it could easily be used effectively at home and may prevent some trips to the hospital. Activated charcoal comes in a dry form and can easily be mixed with soda or juice. Ask your doctor or pharmacist for more information.

GRAND MARSHALS Cecil and Louise Gien are likewise lifetime residents of the Boyne area, though Louise graduated from Boyne City High School while Cecil earned his diploma in Boyne Falls.

Married just a couple weeks after Louise graduated, the couple made their home in Boyne Falls, with Cecil first working at the Tannery in Boyne City and later spending 24 years as a Boyne Falls School bus driver.

Through 53 years of marriage, the Gien have raised four children, three sons and a daughter, who've increased the brood to include 11 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The couple, who still keep milk cows in their retirement, always make time to attend the Polish Festival, taking in the parade and taking the opportunity to catch up with friends and neighbors.

THE HONOREES of this year's festival can be seen in the Grand Royale Parade, scheduled for Saturday, Aug. 3, beginning at 11 a.m.

Honored Citizen Tom Matelski has spent all of his 78 years in his family home in Boyne Falls.

Motorcycle club members face charges in beating of Boyne man

Two area men are facing felony assault charges, with charges pending for a third man, in connection with an assault that took place recently at Whiting Park Campground in Eveline Township.

Eric Peter Vaughn, 29, of Boyne City, and Marcus Damon Cornelisse, of Alba, have both been charged with one count of assault with a dangerous weapon. Richard Lee Selissen is expected to be charged this week.

According to an affidavit given by Charlevoix County Under Sheriff Donald Schneider, on July 16, officers were dispatched to the campground to assist David Wayne Loranger, 40, of Boyne City, who was reportedly assaulted and bleeding badly.

Witnesses reported that three males had assaulted Loranger before leaving the scene in a dark blue, full-size van heading west on Ferry Road.

At the scene Loranger told officers that after the men pulled up in the van, one got out and asked if he was David Loranger.

After replying in the affirmative, Loranger was then punched in the face by the man.

According to the affidavit, Loranger advised deputies that he never saw the other two suspects, "because it was kind of a blur," but he was being "punched and kicked in the face a lot."

Witnesses told officers that the three males kicked Loranger in the face and smashed his head against a tree.

Loranger also told police that until recently he had been a member of the Outlaws motorcycle club, and that the incident could have been repercussion for leaving the club.

The suspects were apprehended by Sergeant Patrick Avery, who pulled over a van matching the description of the suspects' on Peninsula Road near Dutchman's Bay Road.

The occupants, Vaughn, Cornelisse, and Selissen, were all known by Avery to be associated with the Outlaws Motorcycle Club, according to the affidavit.

After inspecting the suspects' footwear, and finding that the shoes had blood on them and that the waffle pattern on one sole appeared to match the pattern imprinted on Loranger's head, Avery arrested the suspects.

Boyne City Ambulance personnel arrived on the scene and transported Loranger to Charlevoix Area Hospital, where he was treated for head injuries, and released.

At press time, both Vaughn and Cornelisse were being held at the Charlevoix County jail on $50,000 bond each.

A preliminary hearing is scheduled for both men on Tuesday, Aug. 6, in Charlevoix County District Court.

Gaylord man faces charges in three state park assaults

The Charlevoix County Sheriff's Office arrested a 20-year-old Gaylord man over the weekend on three counts of sexual assault.

On Saturday, July 20, police arrested Scott Thomas Payton, 20, in connection with an incident alleged to have taken place on Sunday, July 14, at Young State Park in Evangeline Township.

The initial report received by police was that a 15-year-old girl had been sexually assaulted.

According to the sheriff's department, investigation has determined that three 15-year-old Charlevoix County girls had been assaulted in three different incidents while swimming in Lake Charlevoix.

The Charlevoix County Prosecutor's Office has issued felony charges of two counts of Criminal Sexual Conduct in the third degree, and one count of Criminal Sexual in the fourth degree.

Payton's bond was set at $75,000 cash or surety; he has posted bond and has been released from jail pending arraignment in the 90th District Court.

Cecil and Louise Gien, grand marshals in the Polish Festival parade, celebrate 53 years of marriage this year.

3 on 3 tourney to benefit BFPS program

The Polish Festival Three on Three Shootout will be held on Friday, Aug. 2, at the Boyne Falls Public School, M-75 South, Boyne Falls.

Registration will begin at 8 a.m., with play starting at 9 a.m.

Divisions include boys and girls grades 3 through 12, with four divisions each. No adult divisions will play.

EJ Little League program offers learning and fun

TO THE EDITOR:

I'd like to take this opportunity to thank all of the volunteers who contributed so much to the East Jordan Little League program again this season. Thanks to the efforts of the coaches, umpires and other volunteers, more than 300 young people had a great learning experience in a supportive and sportsmanlike learning environment.

I'd also like to thank the members of the Little League Board of Directors. As a parent, coach and spectator, I was so impressed with the organization of the league again this year, and the planning and leadership demonstrated by the members of the Board made things easier for everyone. Great job!

I can't wait for next season...especially with the new fields at Community Park!

Thanks again everyone.

Stolen ornament returned to owner

TO THE EDITOR:

I want to thank the gentleman who gave my giraffe head to Sheriff Lasater with the instructions to give it to the owner, because he saw my letter in the paper. You have restored my faith in my fellow man, and made an old lady very happy. Again thank you, and God Bless you.

EJ fishing pond to hold fund-raiser

TO THE EDITOR:

The first fund-raiser for the East Jordan Kids Fishing Pond was held at Glen's Market in East Jordan. With the help of Glen's, Sarah Brusse and son Pauley we raised $141.12. A big thank you to the folks go out to Valley Graphics Printing who made all the posters and donated them and their time to the cause.

We will be having another fund-raiser this Friday and Saturday July 26 and 27 in front of Glen's; you can get a hot dog and pop for $1.

Kids, don't forget about the name the pond contest.

BOYNE CITY PUBLIC SCHOOLS CONSTRUCTION UPDATE

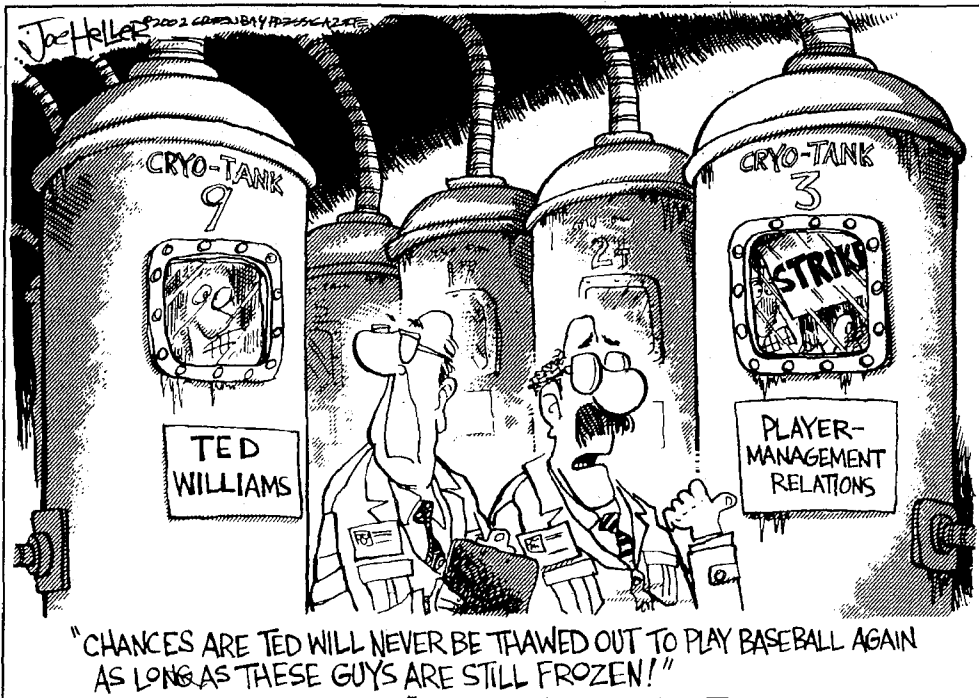

(The following update has been provided by The Christman Company and the Boyne City Board of Education.)

The new high school has seen the completion of its landscaping, and the lawns will be seeded on July 26. The bleachers in the new gymnasium have been installed, as well as 80 percent of the seats in the auditorium. The equipment in the kitchen is being installed, and the tile floors in the commons and lobby areas are under installation.

The re-construction continues in the existing high school as they finish the block construction as well as the structural steel. They will start to paint sometime this week. They will start the flooring the week of July 30, and then the casework will be installed the week of Aug. 5.

The office renovations in the existing middle school have been completed, as the custodial crews work to make the needed moves of the central administration. The new carpeting in the elementary school has been completed, and the school is almost put back together and ready for students.

All in all the construction continues on target, and the crews continue to mesh their schedules with that of the custodial crews to see that the moves continue with as few problems as possible.

A Mom's Life

Life as a parent, before and after

By CINDI PLACE

Oftentimes, I tend to think of my life as A.C. and B.C., before children and after children. Before children, I led what I thought was a pretty active life. I went to school, participated in lots of college activities, worked full time and actually had a social life. I could while away a whole afternoon reading a book or working on a class assignment, uninterrupted. A midnight run to the grocery store was only to get snack food. I never dreamed back then that my midnight runs to the store in my future would be either because we were out of milk or because it was the first time all day that I had a spare second. Or that it was the best way to be alone for an hour or so.

Before kids, I was pretty organized. My dorm room wasn't neat, but I certainly knew where everything was hidden. My husband claims that I had our wedding completed planned, even before we had met. (Actually, he's not entirely wrong about that!) But the most significant difference between my B.C. time and now is that I was usually on time for things. If I was running late, it was because some really uncontrollable event had taken place (like my car had broken down, or I had lost my car keys).

But now, A.C., I count myself lucky when I'm only a few minutes late. Take school mornings, for instance. In preparation for a hectic morning, I've laid out the breakfast things, checked to make sure lunches are packed and retrieved the backpacks from whatever dark hole they were hidden in after school. I've even signed the trillion school forms, checked the homework list and reminded kids about whatever event/practice/activity they will be participating in the next day. In short, WE are organized.

But then, morning arrives. And even if my alarm clock goes off (I am blessed with an early morning husband), inevitably someone else's does not. Which, of course, is MY fault. So with a 30 minute late start, we are faced with showers for four, finding socks and shoes, doing the homework that was supposedly done before going to the soccer game, and eating what would qualify for a hamster's breakfast...in the car.

After one of these hurried mornings, as we're getting into the car, I was reminded by my soon-to-be drivers-license-eligible son that he was supposed to drive to school, to get his hours, don't you know.

Oh well, whether it's by 5 minutes or 15, late is late isn't it?

MANY THANKS

Camp Quality teen camp made great through generosity of many

Camp Quality just completed an adventure-filled four-day Beaver Island Teen Camp. In spite of some rainy weather, we had a wonderful time, thanks to the contributions of food, vehicles, time, and talents of the Beaver Islanders and others. We would like to thank them.

All food was donated by Islanders: Bill Cashman and the Beaver Island Historical Society for the story and a tour of Protar's cabin; The Shamrock for lunch; Kayaking with "Kayak Ken" Bruland; Lakesports for bicycles; Larry and Laraine Dawson for a trek of the beaver gnawings at Fox Lake (and cookies!); Dirty Denny's for a dog, chips, and pop before we left for the mainland. Businesses donated great prizes for Commission on Aging BBQ

The biggest thank you goes out to the Boyne City and Boyne Falls businesses for the awesome prize donations for the annual Commission on Aging chicken BBQ. Thank you to anyone that played any part in the truly wonderful day.

If you were lucky enough to be there you certainly saw how fortunate we are to live in the communities that we do.

Thanks again everybody.

Students earn GEDs through EJ Learning Lab

Twenty-three men and women recently graduated from the Michigan Works! East Jordan Learning Lab, facilitated by the Traverse Bay Area Intermediate School District through Northwest Michigan Works!

The graduates joined with almost one hundred other learning lab students from nine learning labs throughout northwest Michigan for commencement exercises held in the Milliken Auditorium at the Dennon Museum in Traverse City.

The East Jordan grads, 22 of whom received General Education Development (GED) Certificates while one received a traditional high school diploma, ranged in age from 18 to 60 years old.

East Jordan Learning Lab instructors Jerry Hawes and Patti Hodge credit the graduates with an enormous amount of discipline and tenacity.

"Many of the students juggle family responsibilities, employment and community involvement along with classes at the learning lab," said Hodge.

East Jordan Learning Lab, along with learning labs in Petoskey, Kalkaska, Cadillac, Benzonia, Manistee, Mancelona and Traverse City, offer flexible hours with instruction in GED preparation, high school completion classes, basic skills instruction and computer literacy.

All classes are self-paced and offer individualized instruction.

East Jordan Learning Lab is located in the Jordan Valley District Library and offers summer instruction from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

Area programs benefit from state tobacco settlement funds

More than $23,000 was recently granted to Charlevoix and Emmet county programs for tobacco prevention and cessation, and programs that emphasize healthy lifestyle choices.

The grants were made by the Charlevoix County Community Foundation and the Petoskey-Harbor Springs Area Community Foundation as part of an agreement between the State of Michigan and the Council of Michigan Foundations. The State of Michigan is one of 46 states receiving funds from the 1998 national tobacco master settlement agreement between the tobacco industry and the states.

Under an agreement with the State of Michigan and the Council of Michigan Foundations, a portion of the interest earned on the State's tobacco settlement revenue is distributed annually to the 66 community foundations in the State to fund local, health-related programs for youth and seniors.

The Charlevoix County Community Foundation and the Petoskey-Harbor Springs Area Community Foundation together received over $40,000 for the 2002 distribution.

Half of that amount is placed in a permanent endowment by each community foundation for future grantmaking and the other half is for immediate grantmaking.

While each community foundation has its own permanent endowment to benefit their respective counties, the two community foundations have formed a joint Healthy Youth and Seniors Advisory Committee made up of representatives from health and human service agencies that cover the Char-Em area.

In addition, each community foundation has a member of their Youth Advisory Committee serve on the Healthy Youth and Seniors Advisory Committee.

In the latest round of grantmaking, the two Community Foundations each awarded $10,769 to the Northwest Michigan Community Health Agency for their Tobacco Prevention and Cessation Among Youth - 2002 project.

This is a comprehensive education and prevention project to target elementary, middle and high school students in Charlevoix and Emmet counties.

The project will also include a media campaign and educational programs for seniors.

The Charlevoix County Community Foundation also awarded $2,000 to Planned Parenthood Northern Michigan for the How To Say No program, which teaches healthy lifestyle choices for seventh and eighth grade students.

More information about the Healthy Youth and Seniors funds, program eligibility and grant deadlines is available by contacting either of the community foundations. Call the Charlevoix County Community Foundation at 536-2440 or the Petoskey-Harbor Springs Area Community Foundation at 348-5820.

NEIGHBORS

By NANCY NORTHUP

A LITTLE BELATED news for last week's column, but they will be celebrating all year long! Mr. and Mrs. William "Bill" Vuilleumot of Boyne City will celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary with a private family gathering in August at Bower's Harbor Inn in Traverse City. The Rev. Donald Black married Bill Vuilleumot and Janet Rickard June 28, 1952, at Bethany Presbyterian Church in Flint. The couple moved here permanently more than four years ago, after spending weekends in northern Michigan for 11 years. Mr. Vuilleumot worked for 40 years in the plastic injection mold business. He was the owner of Duramold Co. in Flushing and retired in 1997 from Schmalz Tool & Die, Inc. in Burton. Mrs. Vuilleumot retired after working as a secretary for 28 years. She also worked a couple of years each at McDonald Dairy-Flint, GM Marketing Educational Services, and spent the final two years of her career at U of M-Flint. They have three sons: Michael (Judy) Vuilleumot of Mt. Pleasant, William C. (Barbara) Vuilleumot of Holt, Mich. and Richard Vuilleumot of Hilton Head, S.C., and three grandchildren, Tyler, Bianca and Trent.

A BRIDAL SHOWER was given for Jessica Jones on Saturday at the Central Lake Township Hall in Central Lake with about 50 friends and relatives attending. Games were played and many gifts given. ON SATURDAY at the home of Doug and Sheri Drake, Kara Drake was honored with a graduation party with lots of friends and relatives present to enjoy a pig roast and other foods. It also was Doug's 55th birthday and all there signed a lawn chair for him to enjoy. Later in the afternoon a baby shower was held for the Eric Drakes who are expecting their first child in August. Besides all the good food, hot chocolate sundaes were served to all.

BOB AND BRENDA SAGORSKI and daughter Renae, of Grand Rapids, were here for a quick weekend stop to visit her mother Meta Zinck and her sister Diane and John Munk and family.

ANNE JENKINS can now join area neighbors in telling "bear" sighting stories. On Thursday, as she was approaching her Kuzmik Road home, a big bear walked right across the road, without even looking her way, and scampered off on the other side, back into the woods. On Friday, she experienced another delight in the beautiful world of nature in the north, as a doe and twin fawns crossed her path!

VISITING THE Lake Shore Drive home of Thorneta Rowe recently were her six grandchildren and each brought a friend and also great grandchild, 1-year-old Olivia Paige Greenslade, her daughter Susan and husband Dusty Rhodes of Troy. All enjoyed a busy happy fun-filled week!

ROSE REINHARDT and son Warren of Boyne City spent an enjoyable Friday evening at the Boyne Falls Cherry Hill "home for the summer" of daughter and sister and husband, Elaine and Lyle West of Texas.

SEVERAL MEMBERS of the class of 1947 met at Pippin's for breakfast Saturday to visit with Marilyn (Lawson) Grant from Marble, N.C., who was visiting in the area for the Lawson Reunion Saturday afternoon at the Korthase Farm where Nancy and Bruce Lawson live. Those having breakfast with Marilyn were Peg Crozier, Arlene Moore, Arlene Skop, Elnora Maule, Barbara Erfourth, Pat Souder, Opal Washburn and Leona Stanek.

DAN AND NORMA WILSON spent the past week in Birch Run with Michelle and Keith Ellison and son Dustin, also visiting the Tom Wilsons and the Jim Burns families.

THE ANNUAL GAUNT Reunion was held this past Sunday at Whiting Park. The rain did not dampen their spirits as this year was a record turnout, with people coming from as far away as Indianapolis, Ind. A White Elephant sale was held with everyone enjoying bidding and the fun gifts they got. Plans are already being made for next year.

EVELYN STEBBINS and her daughter, Marilyn Brown visited in the Upper Peninsula at Grand Marais, with Marilyn's daughter and husband for four days last week. Enjoyed a boat trip out into Lake Superior and several sight seeing trips around the area. Weather was perfect and all had a fun time.

She weighs 8 and 1/2 pounds now, they are all glad to have her home as she continues to grow strong with so many people loving her and praying for her. The Carsons attended a birthday for their grandson, Brandon Chew on Sunday, July 21. He is four years old

CHARLEVOIX COUNTY, MICHIGAN
TO BE HELD AUGUST 6, 2002

To the qualified electors of _____ City/Township notice is hereby given that a Primary Election will be held on Tuesday, August 6, 2002, for the purpose of nominating or election candidates for the following offices:

Governor	Judge of the Court of Appeals
Representative in Congress	Township Supervisor (to fill vacancy, if any)
State Senator	Township Clerk (to fill vacancy, if any)
State Representative	Township Treasurer (to fill vacancy, if any)
County Commissioner	Township Trustee (to fill vacancy, if any)
Justices of the Supreme Court	Precinct Delegates

and to vote on the following proposal(s):

BOYNE VALLEY TOWNSHIP

This proposal will permit the township to levy 1/3 mill for continuing to operate this transfer station in addition to improving the road from U.S. 131 to the transfer station. The electors had previously approved .75 mills which expired in 2001. This proposal is a decrease of .3956 mills which was last levied.

Shall the limitation on the amount of taxes which may be imposed on taxable property in the Township of Boyne Valley, County of Charlevoix, State of Michigan be increased by 1/3 mill, thirty-three cents ($.3333) per thousand dollars ($1,000) of taxable value, on all taxable property in the Township for a period of four (4) years, 2002 thru 2005 inclusive, for the purpose of operating the Boyne Valley Township Transfer Station in addition to improving the road from U.S. 131 to the Transfer Station? If approved and levied in its entirety, it is estimated that the 1/3 mill would raise an estimated $22,617 for the Township when first levied in 2002.

EVELINE TOWNSHIP

Shall the limitation on the amount of taxes which may be imposed on taxable property in the Township of Eveline, County of Charlevoix, State of Michigan be increased one mill, one dollar ($1.00) per thousand dollars ($1,000.00) of taxable value, on all taxable property in the Township for a period of two (2) years, 2002 through 2003 inclusive, for the purpose of Township road construction and maintenance? If approved and levied in its entirety, it is estimated that the 1 mill would rise an estimated $163,295.00 for the Township when first levied in 2002.

HUDSON TOWNSHIP

This proposal will permit the Township to restore the Township's 2 mills for road improvements previously approved by the electors and now expired. This ballot proposal renews the existing 2 mills.

"Shall the previously voted increase in the 15 mill tax limitation imposed under Article IX, Sec. 6 of the Michigan Constitution on general ad valorem taxes within Hudson Township be renewed at 2 mills ($2.00 per $1,000 of taxable value) for four (4) years, 2002 through 2005 inclusive, for the purpose of road improvements; and shall the Township levy such renewal in millage for said purpose, thereby raising in the first year an estimated $50,561?"

MARION TOWNSHIP

This proposal will permit the Township to levy 1.5 mills for road construction and maintenance. The electors previously approved a similar millage in 1999, which expired in 2001.

1. Shall the limitation on the amount of taxes which may be imposed on taxable property in the Township of Marion, County of Charlevoix, State of Michigan, be increased by one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per thousand dollars ($1,000) - (1.5 mills) - of the taxable value on all taxable property in the township for three (3) years, 2002 through 2004 inclusive, for the purpose of providing funds for road construction and maintenance? ANNUAL HOME AND BOAT TOUR WILL FEATURE BOYNE'S

GRAND STYLE

The ninth annual Boyne Area Home and Classic Boat Tour will be held on Friday, Aug. 2, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., hosted by Eta Nu Sorority.

The tour features five unique homes and a collection of classic boats. Two of the homes are located in Boyne City, and two homes outside Boyne City just beyond Young State Park. The boats are displayed at the Harborage Marina on Lake Charlevoix in Boyne City.

Tickets are priced at $15 each, and are available in Boyne City at Boyne Country Books; East Jordan at the Busy Bridge; in Petoskey at McLean and Eakin Bookstore; and in Charlevoix at the Appletree. Tickets can be purchased at each of the homes and at the marina on the day of the tour.

Proceeds from the Tour will benefit Boyne City Foundation for Education Excellence; Teen Parent Program-NW Michigan area; Women's Resource Center of Northern Michigan; and other local programs.

There will be a raffle the day of the tour this year, giving participants a chance to win "Sweet Delight," an original watercolor painting donated by local artist June Storm. Tickets may be purchased at the Newkirk home on the tour.

Nancy and Warren Carr Home

Nancy and Warren Carr's casual lakeside cottage is a home that brings the outdoors in and takes advantage of a beautiful lake view and gorgeous sunsets. Robert Stempien put Carr's vision on paper to create their dream home, built by Floyd and Todd Wright in 2000.

The foyer leads into a great room, dining and kitchen area overlooking Lake Charlevoix. The fireplace is constructed of New York River rock with six Petoskey stones embedded in the facade. The cozy sun porch, Carr's Little Lighthouse, has a bead board ceiling and is decorated in cottage blue and butter yellow.

The home has a third floor office, and the lower level walkout includes a family room, three bedrooms and two baths. Mrs. Carr's mother created most of the paintings throughout the home.

Strong lines are the hallmark of the Newkirk home, accented with glass and stone, and softened by varied plantings.

Newkirk Home

The Newkirk home features beautiful landscaping designed by Drost, includes a pool and stream that begin at the front entry and flow around the house down to the lake.

Designed and built by Andy Poineau, this large comfortable wood and stone house is a place reminiscent of the New England beach "cottage style homes" that may be found at Hyannisport or Cape Cod.

The Warm, inviting interior showcases multiple windows framing colorful views of the yard and lake, and beautiful Lake Charlevoix sunsets.

A focal point of the great room is a magnificent winding staircase crafted from the same fine cherry wood as the flooring, moldings, and woodwork throughout. This room opens to a large "working gourmet" kitchen, butler's pantry, and keeping room. The expanse of granite counter tops and back-splashes make it very user-friendly.

Other interesting spaces include a home gym, office with home theater, and a wine tasting room and cellar.

Ernest and Charlene Shedd Home

After inheriting this historic home in 1991, Ernest and Charlene Shedd, with the guidance of architect Stephen Wiseman, began the renovation of this charming turn-of-the-century home.

Although the floor plan has been changed to accommodate visiting family and friends, many historic features were retained.

A structural beam from the home was incorporated into the new fireplace mantel and the rocks from the crumbling foundation are now used in landscaping the lovely rose garden and flowerbeds.

This has been a labor of love for Ernie and Charlene Shedd.

As a result of their renovations, the couple received the Marvin Lodging Award for Community Improvement from the City of Boyne City in 2001.

Classic Wooden Boats

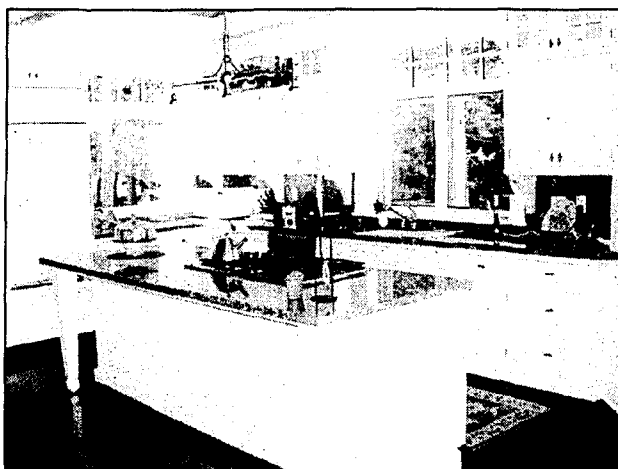

With the assistance of Sunburst Marine, organizers have selected several classic boats from the Sunburst collection, and from the collections of their clients, to feature in this year's Home Tour.

These wooden classics, with their highly varnished mahogany hulls, deep throated inboard engines, and beautiful interiors (featuring leather and chrome trim) will delight every visitor to the Harborage Yacht Basin.

Representing a variety of manufacturers and styles, these boats date from the 1930s, 1940s, and 1950s.

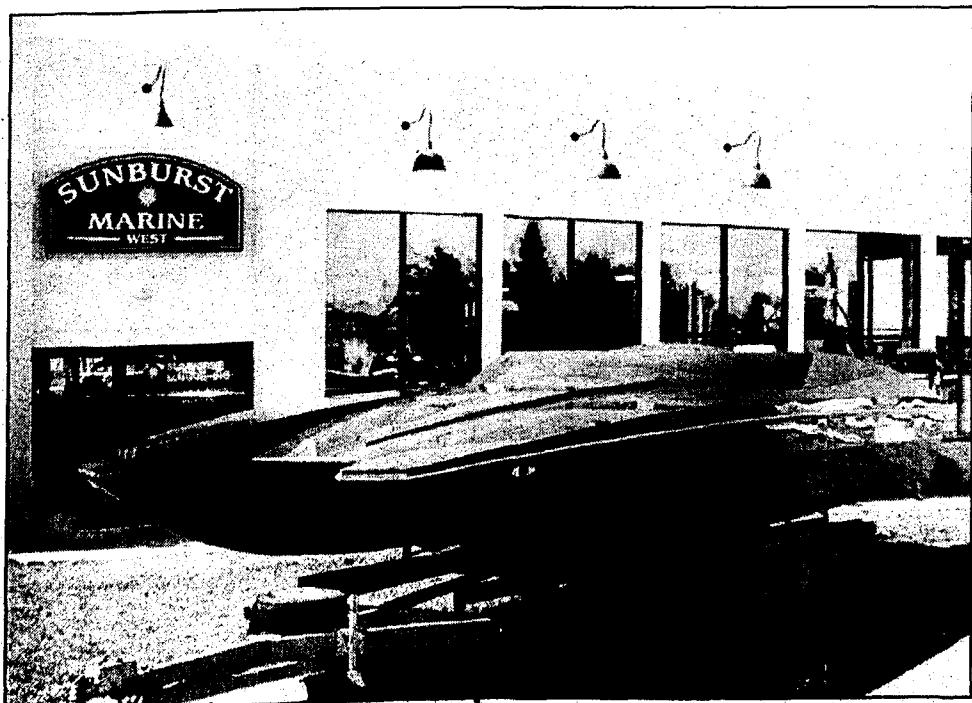

Even though Chris Craft may be the most quickly recognized name in wooden boats, classic vessels from other American and Canadian builders will also be a part of this year's tour.

Other homes to be featured on the tour include the Beckenhauer House, in the Harborage, and the Shorkey House, an historical home in downtown Boyne City.

The Shedd home, far left, underwent a major renovation a year ago, to bring it to its current state. Victorian colors and a nautical theme adorn the outside of the home. The Carr home features a sunny, open-concept kitchen, near left. Out back, the home boasts a breathtaking view of Lake Charlevoix, and the Carrs enjoy their lake frontage with a shady lake-side deck, sand beach, and dock, pictured below, amidst creative landscaping.

This 32-foot catamaran is powered by two, 300 horsepower Mercury engines. The boat is just one of the wooden beauties to be featured on the tour.

WEDDING

Knight-Micheau

Jeanice Marie and Kenneth Michael Knight were married Saturday, April 27, in Marquette. The 4 p.m. nuptials took place in the Red Room of the Masonic Building, a turn of the century historic opera house.

The room was decorated in a gothic/medieval theme. The pews were adorned with silver ribbon-wrapped tussie musies backed by large silver opalescent and tulle bows. They were filled with arrangements of daisies, calla lilies, baby's breath, variegated ivy and deep red roses with long garlands of white roses and ivy placed between each arrangement. The stage was back dropped with a scenic painting of a lake and a castle on a hill, and the altar area was decorated with an arch accented with lilies, calla lilies, daisies and tulle surrounded by tall ferns and glowing candelabras.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Pastor Paul Olson who wore Monk style clothing befitting the occasion.

The bride is the daughter of Christine (Fall) and Johnnie Knight of Boyne City. The groom's parents are Diane and Tom Micheau of Rock, Mich.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore an ivory Renaissance style empire A-line English Native, textured gown with long sheer trumpet sleeves decorated with beading, pearls and Venice lace appliques complemented by a chapel-length train. She carried a cascading bouquet of white stargazer lilies, ivy, black magic deep red roses, wax flowers and daisies.

The bride, bridesmaids and flower girls all adorned their hair with fresh daisies.

Maid of honor was Julie Ahonen, and bridesmaids were April Mattson, Sue Sevanski, Sarah Micheau, sister of groom, and Patricia Roggeman. The bridesmaids wore garnet colored Renaissance inspired brocade-textured empire style gowns. They were trimmed in velvet ribbon with lace up backs and long cascading bell sleeves reminiscent of Lady Guinevere. They each carried a bouquet of long stemmed calla lilies, which were hand tied with garnet ribbon and accented with daisies, ivy and long strands of floral grasses.

The flower girls were Nichole Micheau, sister of groom, and Carissa Sevanski, daughter of bridesmaid, Sue Sevanski. They each carried silver baskets decorated with silver bows, calla lilies, daisies and opalescent pearls. The girls wore white and ivory dresses in the same style as the bride with long sheer trumpet sleeves trimmed with opalescent pearls.

The best man, Mark Schwark, carried the ring box. Groomsmen were Christopher Goodnough, brother of groom; Calvin De Voll; T.J. Micheau, brother of groom; and Adam Mcquire. Ushers were Tom Knight, brother of bride, and Thom Ahonen.

The groom wore a black 18th Century inspired English highwayman's style jacquard-textured high gate coat with braided trim and up turned french cuffs, over a black poet shirt with an outspread Byron collar and cross-laced neck opening and black pants. The groomsmen and ushers wore the same poet shirts and black pants.

Music for the ceremony was provided by String of Pearls, a cello, guitar, and flute trio.

A dinner reception was held at the Holiday Inn in Marquette, hosted by the bride's parents. The wedding cake was made by the bride's mother and was decorated with fresh daisies, silver hearts, lacy silver butterflies and tall ivory candles.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at Casa Calabria in Marquette.

Honored guests at the wedding were the bride's maternal grandmother, Betty Shaver and a great-aunt, Sue Amer, both of Boyne City.
